And here it is, 'only in America!' Panic-stricken Pentagon officials, 'think-tankers' and an assortment of other incompetent idiots are running around the Capitol like chickens without heads, why? Simply because, as is well known, any modern military could put an end to so-called terror groups causing mayhem in the Middle East almost overnight but where there is no will (in the USA) there is clearly no way.

US Secretary of State, John 'dunce' Kerry -- the appropriate choice for the job!

The US has been pretending to fight 'terror' for the past 15 years while its real agenda is to remove all obstacles to its insane, delusional dream of 'Full Spectrum Dominance,' which translates as controlling or ruling the entire world - how's that for a classic megalomaniacal disorder/ambition, which every history book reveals as an IMPOSSIBLE, psychotic dream? However, REALITY has never dampened the pathological pursuits of nut cases, which the US population has allowed to seize control of the Republic - time to read your founding documents, doodles.

The panic in Washington has manifested publicly in a number of imbecilic, ill-conceived, strategies, namely, OPENLY and ILLEGALLY dropping arms and supplies to al-Qaeda affiliated groups in Syria, which previous caches Russia obliterated during its early bombing campaign. How's that for Washington releasing the 'cat out of the bag' of American bullshit regarding who Washington really supports and why? Remember that Washington recently claimed that these groups were a threat to the entire world - it's medication time, Nurse Ratched! However, Washington now trains, arms and sends these homicidal maniacs to fulfil its demented and twisted 'Pax Americana' megalomaniacal dream, and what has it achieved to date? Massive destabilisation, a refugee crisis, the new century's first human holocaust and numerous failed States - well done, America! And this thoroughly incompetent, destructive State wishes to rule the world - give sanity and humanity a break!

However, there's more I'm sorry to say. Embarrassed by this idiotic, compromising failed tactic, Washington then urged Gulf State vassals, Saudi and Qatar, to threaten direct military invasion and fight with the TERRORISTS they support, which would undoubtedly trigger WWII -- back to the scrawling board in the asylum. Meanwhile Russia is proving that a modern military is easily able to checkmate a bunch of retarded, inbred, murderous fanatics running errands for the USA.

Enter dunderhead John Kerry who is barely able to read from the script and send him on a mission to request peace/ceasefire talks with the major players in Vienna; now dig this, while at the SAME time illegally and OVERTLY sending US forces into the conflict, which action not only scuttled the failed peace ploy to save Washington's terrorist fighters but made a laughing stock out of the geniuses and master 'chess players' in Washington - how any developed nation is able to justify their involvement with Washington in these grossly illegal activities is simply beyond reason, are you reading this Australian political dunces?

Kerry was not laughed out of the room but he sure got the message in Vienna, FAIL by self-inflicted wound; so sure, let's all support these inept American psychopaths in their clearly WORLD-destroying, psychopathic venture.

I am waiting for an Aussie mainstream journalist with a semblance of grit and spine to question and take to task the new 'do-nothing' conservative PM of Australia about Oz's involvement in this criminal absurdity. Meanwhile Russia is LEGALLY pursuing its very effective campaign against ALL terrorists in the region, and the WORLD should be very grateful that Russia is not controlled by incompetent, lobotomised, CRIMINAL lunatics that dictate policy in Washington AND now OPENLY ADVERTISE their searing hypocrisy, double standards and numerous crimes to the ENTIRE WORLD!
