

Connect the Dots - WWII Began 14 Years Ago

Aussie primary school kids once played a game in class when boring teachers failed to grab the attention of the class, it was silent in its design, it was called "boxes." Students sat in pairs in those days so it was relatively easy to unobtrusively pass a sheet from an exercise book consisting of dots placed in square formation, the size appropriate to the time available. The objective of the game was to create more boxes than the opponent, the only rule was that only two dots could be connected with a single line at a time, nevertheless, try as one might to avoid giving the opponent the opportunity to create a box, the lines began to fill the dot-pattern and opponents were able to create boxes which gave them the next move.

Aussie kids learned at an early age how to strategically and competitively connect dots, however, it seems this ability is lost on Yankee kids and adults. I recommend playing the game and learning how to connect the dots in order to 'win', an obsession in American culture.

War hawk and consultant to the American neocon criminal elite, Zbigniew Brzezinski, once utilised the metaphor/analogy of a chessboard to outline his vision and plan of American hegemony and how it could be achieved, though of course chess is far too complex a game for the American public, it requires some thought and strategic thinking. Nevertheless, even the American public is able to play boxes and connect the dots, which new found ability may prove extremely helpful in apprehending and understanding the deadly game American elite criminals are currently playing in the Middle East and the South China Sea.

The first move/line was clearly the 9/11 false flag and the subsequent declaration of war on the noun 'terror' in order to grant sole executive power to the president, a war, fabricated or otherwise, was required to usurp the processes of a democratic government structure and concentrate power in the executive, which of course allows for the formation of a fascistic State, which has since occurred in the US. Also, it was strategically planned that the declaration of war should not be against a physical entity, state, group, or otherwise, as traditional warfare would soon resolve itself into a victor and vanquished and as the dastardly planners of this nefarious scheme (PNAC) wished to wage "perpetual war" until their pathological dream of world domination could be realised, war would have to be declared on an abstract term which could then be tagged to whomsoever or whatever the nefarious powers chose, notwithstanding that this design/operation was/is entirely criminal in nature.

However, the support of the people/masses was/is essential and so a tried and tested formula was lifted from the Nazis lock and stock without alteration, crowd control or 'perception management' as it is called today, via the medium of mass communication ('news'); misinformation, BIG lies, WMD, blaming and demonising the victim, false flags and accusations of another entity, state or leader in order to wage war and conquer the target entity, which includes the local population. Propaganda is indispensable in order to wage criminal wars. And so the American people have been deliberately deceived by elite criminals as was the civilised and cultured German population of the 30's and 40's.

The war on 'terror' has allowed, with the acquiescent support of the American people, nefarious criminal, American elites to wreak unimaginable horror, mass murder, ruin and havoc on innocent populations throughout the world. All this in order for an elite few to realise their pathological dream of world domination, and as absolute (executive) power corrupts absolutely, the world population now faces the consequences of allowing a handful of criminals to lord over them -- critical mass has been reached. Nazi conquest also proceeded in this manner until world war could not be averted.

WE, the population of the entire world are now faced with the very real prospect of WWIII, and it arrived like a bad movie from the 20th century, indeed, those that fail to learn from history are condemned to repeat it! However, today nuclear weapons are involved in the psychopathic pursuits of madmen and mad women. Is it too late to avert this planned world war? No, but immediate ACTION is required to avert it and that action is readily on offer. It is to simply enforce local and international LAW, as the crimes of the nefarious elite are an open book today as is the available evidence of those crimes, the rest is up to YOU. Make your choice, to live in peace and harmony or face vaporisation and obliteration and I do not exaggerate.
