Paris: Why Does the USA and its Allies Continue to Support, Train and Arm Terrorists?

First, we extend our sympathies to those affected by the barbaric slaughter of civilians in Paris regardless of who is ultimately responsible and behind these barbaric attacks.

The Paris tragedy was no doubt designed to instil fear and allow for greater state control and the erosion of democratic rights and civil liberties everywhere, indeed, as one infamous war criminal and respected US official/adviser, Henry Kissinger, once stated, to paraphrase, 'create chaos and danger and the people will beg to be protected and will easily surrender their rights.' Indeed they will, as has be proven time and again but today surrendered rights are never returned as created threats remain and so goes the freedoms and liberties our ancestors fought so valiantly and passionately to gain and grant future generations which have too easily forfeited what they have been granted.

Now, the question of who is ultimately responsible for these terrorist attacks not only in Europe, Russia but in devastating wars in the Middle East must be asked. It is no secret that ALL terrorists share the same modus operandi -- that is to instil terror, maim and kill as many innocents as possible in the most grotesque and bloodthirsty manner, YET we also KNOW that nothing materialises from thin air, terrorists are openly trained, armed and supported by the USA and Israel in Syria and elsewhere and supplied with weaponry to do the bidding of their masters, HOWEVER, terrorists also have their own agendas and support often filters to other groups which wreak havoc in areas not specified or controlled by the lords of proxy armies.

Now, I would highlight the FACT that America/NATO OVERTLY supplies arms to numerous terrorist groups throughout the world but particularly in the Balkans, Middle East, Central Asia and North Africa, read documented history and current news for confirmation. So who is ultimately responsible for ALL terror attacks worldwide? Doh! And which nation has the dubious 'honour' of leading the world in civilian deaths? America, FACT! And if REALITY and facts mean nothing to you then suffer the consequences of your idiocy and cowardice.

I would refer to the infamous fleet of Toyota trucks that ISIL -- that claims responsibility for the Paris attacks -- so overtly and foolishly brandished in its early propaganda videos; simply trace how ISIL obtains its resources if you really wish to understand who is behind the terrorism scourge that now plagues the world.

Furthermore, THINK before you fall victim to media hysteria, where are the results of citizens foolishly forfeiting their rights regarding personal privacy and the implementation of pan-surveillance, non-existent, as this monitoring is easily able to pin-point terrorist communications world wide; SO either the powers had prior knowledge of these attacks and allowed them to occur or pan-surveillance is ineffective against criminals and terrorists? The primary task of agencies and regulatory forces is PREVENTION and in this regard the world has just witnessed a monumental FAILURE. Now take stock and think, or be forever managed like mindless sheep and cattle -- NEVER surrender your rights and liberties to any entity period, as clearly forfeiting your rights would simply be used to abuse or murder YOU! The failures of the Paris slaughter reek to high heaven and people everywhere should question and demand explanations from their sinister or buffoon puppet governments.
