

NATO - Egg on its Face and Blood on its Hands

by vic Friday, Dec 4 2015, 11:09am

international / prose / post

After Russia exposed to the world NATO's involvement in supporting ISIL, though Russia remains mute on the first instance US/NATO deployed its proxy fighting group ISIL in Libya due to Putin's involvement, mass media focus on ISIL today is on Syria.

The exposure leaves no doubt regarding how ISIL is supported by NATO member Turkey, however, it would be extremely naïve to imagine that Brussels and Washington were unaware of ISIL supply/income sources as they are directly involved in supplying and supporting ISIL.

The 'tightly controlled', CFR directed, US mass media has also published numerous stories of US involvement -- US air-drops of arms and supplies to Jihadists on the ground in Syria after Russia obliterated their stores and weapons/munitions caches. Leading US advisers and war hawks, among them Zbigniew 'chess dunce' Brzezinski, went so far as to go public with this admission, much to the chagrin and regret of Washington's deep state operatives. To put it mildly 'the terrorist is out of the bag,' and there's very little supporters can do about their duplicitous actions considering the horrors and carnage ISIL has wreaked on the world.

Now note NATO's emergency response, France, the UK and Germany now wish to join the fight against ISIL, their own proxy fighting group, in order to save what's left of their duplicitous faces, but where was NATO when ISIL was rampaging through Syria and Iraq capturing vast swathes of land and strategically important cities, nowhere to be seen, notwithstanding the fact that any one of these nation's military could have wiped its arse with this heinous terrorist group in no time?

All the media bluster of Hollande, Cameron and Merkel hardly disguise the facts, NATO's reputation has been forever tarnished in history and exposed as a tool of western imperialism.

However, a little background information is now warranted to complete the picture of the unholy, murderous and despicable intrigues of NATO member States and their criminal leaders. We thank Russia for exposing the sordid truth and the sooner western leaders are held to account the sooner the world would return to relative peace. As one of my former lecturers once stated, there really are no mysteries only media managed social ignorance. We shall see where it all ends, probably WWIII, as desperate men and women resort to desperate measures.

Perhaps the masses may just wake to the truth, intervene and hold these criminal leaders and their puppet masters to account.

Background story by Joe Quinn.