

'Brainwashing' and Crowd Control

Turning enemy combatants into compliant puppets first became headlines during the Korean war. The American military and political hierarchy were astonished to witness trained USAF pilots and other US military personnel (patriots) captured by the enemy spouting North Korean propaganda against the USA. And so they were desperate to learn these age-old methods of mind manipulation developed in Asia to perfection.

'Caliph' Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi

They learned fast as is evident today, not only is the US able to 'turn' the enemy to advantage but it has taken these methods and combined them with known western propaganda methodologies - the result is ISIL and completely harnessed and mentally enslaved local populations.

It is known that the so-called leader of ISIL, Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi, was held captive by the Americans in Iraq for years, and it is also known that ISIL was first utilised as a proxy fighting force by the criminal US/NATO alliance in Libya after the Iraq war, to smash that once prosperous North African nation and murder its non-compliant leader Col. Gaddafi, who was a moderate Muslim able to successfully manage the various factions in his nation, proven by the prosperity his once unified population enjoyed prior to the intervention of western vandals. Any thinking person should be able to add 2+2 to determine the obvious at this stage.

'High value' captive enemy are singled out for special treatment, they are subjected to various forms of physical torture and mental abuse over a prolonged period and then offered incentives to escape that torture and work for the enemy -- and it should be understood that everyone eventually 'breaks' or dies in the process. This conversion process may take years but time is what captors have at their disposal. And so, without going into the details of brain changing techniques -- readers are referred to the many excellent extant texts available -- an enemy becomes an asset, however, it becomes more practical and expedient to offer that former enemy an incentive that is compatible with its deep desires and/or staunchly held beliefs in order to fully exploit the situation.

And so ISIL/IS/Daesh seemed to appear out of nowhere fully armed, trained and supplied with a brand new fleet of Toyota trucks, an impossible acquisition without powerful external support, then it was let loose and allowed to capture large swathes of land in Syria and Iraq and declare a Caliphate, al-Baghdadi's dream, while America, Israel, Turkey, Jordan and numerous Gulf State vassals, which are all complicit in creating, training and supporting ISIL, sat back and watched with smiles on their faces. Please note the lack of response against this proxy fighting group in the early stages of its terror campaign. ISIL was doing its job, destabilising the Middle East in order to facilitate western control later while opposing, and hopefully eliminating the influence of those nations/leaders opposed to US hegemony, Syria and Iran.

Meanwhile, a huge western propaganda campaign was implemented, similar, but on a much larger scale, to the one that preceded Libya's demise - the masses already harnessed, post 9/11, and now held mentally captive were duly corrupted and therefore presented no opposition to this really quite transparent plan by the western criminal alliance and its Eastern vassal allies -- reams of accurate information are available in the public domain, particularly the COMPLICITY of nations that assisted ISIL and continue to assist on the ground today.

However, the ONLY sure force able to remedy the mass murdering criminality and appalling injustices of western profit seeking interests are the informed MASSES, which to the aforementioned nefarious criminal interests are always the REAL enemy and must be held in check with age-old and modern methods of crowd control.

And so today it hardly comes as a surprise that few are aware of REALITY -- though Russia has done much to expose the TRUTH - or are willing to fight against these supremely evil Western forces and literally save the WORLD from a nuclear holocaust. Elite minority criminal forces REMAIN terrified at the prospect.
