

While You Are Watching ...

by rade Sunday, Dec 20 2015, 2:50am

international / prose / post

While the US, its NATO lackeys/vassals and the CFR directed media constantly bleat al-Assad of Syria must go, guess what? You have all fallen for one of the oldest tricks in the propaganda book, 'BLAME THE VICTIM!' The Nazis plunged the entire world into war by this means. Of course blaming the victim keeps the mass mind occupied and focused away from the REAL criminals; Oh, you've been watching Fox and other western 'news' outlets for far too long and you're not aware of the identities of the REAL criminals. Okay, try this and arrive at your own conclusions.

Vladimir Putin just another criminal in a suit

The strategy employed by US/NATO today in the Middle East is a repeat of the strategy used in the Balkans, support and ally yourself with known terrorist and ultra-nationalist groups and foment unrest in targeted nations until you force the collapse of the government - readers should note that interfering in other sovereign nations in this way breaks so many international laws and conventions that the limited space I have does not allow me to list them all - however, check and satisfy yourselves in this regard - 'regime change' instigated by a FOREIGN STATE is an outrageous ILLEGALITY, pure and simple.

When the US and Germany (NATO) began interfering in Yugoslavia their focus and primary objectives were to remove any government that wouldn't play ball with Washington and to establish control over Eastern Europe. During that 'conflict' western powers OPENLY allied themselves with the KLA, a listed Muslim terrorist group and other local and imported extremist Muslims in Bosnia and from around the globe who participated in the fight, most if not all, were supported by the Saudi fundamentalist Wahhabi regime.

And so we had numerous fighting fronts in Yugoslavia, Kosovo in the South, Bosnia in the West, and ultra-nationalist/fascist Croatians in the north, which Germany supported. All these factions against the legitimate government were given all the weapons, intelligence and financial support they required from the west and Saudi Arabia, all the while branding the legitimate leader of Yugoslavia a war criminal in the western media, notwithstanding that US/NATO engaged in the criminal bombing of a European civilian capital city while accusing others of crimes!

Russia stood by and watched its traditional Slav ally go down without lifting a finger. Yugoslavia no longer exists today, what a 'success!' Involved parties in Brussels and Washington were patting themselves on the back for their nefarious, grossly illegal achievement - AND they got away with it!

So onward went this now known western criminal alliance to illegally invade Iraq using exactly the same false accusations/claims and outright LIES, designed to dupe the public into supporting another illegal intervention – of course not forgetting the critical role the CFR controlled western media played throughout and continues to play today.

After the illegal Iraq intervention, which resulted in the first civilian holocaust of the new century -- over 1 million innocent civilians lost their lives -- Libya was next on the hit list, and the same now widely known criminal methods were employed to topple the government and take control. The same methods of accusing the victim of the crimes you yourself are committing, while supporting extremist fighters on the ground to destabilise worked a dream again, Putin once again was a spectator.

The methods the west employs are brazen and bold but were previously proven effective by the Nazis during WWII. So why change a working method if no-one objects or resists? On to Syria, the next sovereign nation on US/NATO's hit list?

I should mention that Russia was allied to the nations which had previously fallen to the west and Putin will forever be shamed and stained for allowing the west to destroy weaker nations while he/Russia did absolutely NOTHING!

However, things have changed with the west's Syrian intervention. It became obvious to Brussels, Washington and even the Russian military, staring intently at Putin, that the west would meet with no resistance and therefore it could continue on its hegemonic course to eventually threaten Russia itself; and why wouldn't it, as Russia had openly failed to intervene and support its allies in the past when it had every legal right and prerogative to do so.

So I would clarify, Russia's current support of the legitimate government of Syria is less about altruism and supporting an ally than it is about plain self-interest.

Now that we've established that Brussels and Washington are essentially locations where western organised criminal interests confer and develop their geostrategic and resource thieving strategies and plans, I would sound a very clear warning to Putin himself, who is just another corrupt criminal once on the west's payroll.

If you fail to support Serbia again Mr Putin, your fate is sealed, history has proven above all else in the political sphere that anyone can be killed. Indeed, your assassination, timed precisely, would plunge the entire world into a conflict from which no-one would emerge the victor. You would join the Archduke in an ignoble grave. Ignore this warning to your and Russia's very great cost – you have a lot to learn about Serbian history and the capability of Serbs – we never forget or abandon the fight.

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-2036.html>