US post-9/11 war on terror reflects state-sponsored deception – with the media complicit in conning the public to believe Washington opposes what it actively supports.

ISIL's 'magical' new Toyotas - simply trace how ISIL is funded, trained and supplied for proof

ISIS, Al Qaeda, Jabhat al-Nusra and various splinter groups are US creations, used as imperial foot soldiers, flourishing because Washington and rogue partners arm, fund, train and direct them.

Obama's vow to "degrade and destroy" ISIS is one of his many Big Lies – saying one thing while supporting a universal scourge.

On Thursday, Defense Secretary Ashton Carter announced scores of newly deployed US commandos in Iraq – ahead of hundreds (perhaps thousands) of combat troops to follow.

In September 2014, Obama said US troops "do not and will not have a combat mission" in Iraq against ISIS.

"I will not (order) our armed forces to fighting another ground war in Iraq." John Kerry repeated the same Big Lie.

Carter's public announcement along with a Defense Department press release revealed it. Months of planning precede military operations.

Washington already has thousands of special forces in Iraq along with unknown numbers in Syria. Escalated military operations are now planned – naked aggression by any standard.

The Pentagon press release cited Carter saying defeating ISIS "must be a global effort and coalition partners and others must step up their contributions to the escalating fight."

"America will continue to lead the fight. (G)reater military contributions (from) coalition partner(s)" are needed.

Next week he intends meeting with British, French, German, Italian, Dutch and Australian defense ministers to discuss [order] their involvement in Washington's imperial campaign.

Make no mistake, the Pentagon intends aiding not combating ISIS using the phony pretext of plans to retake Mosul in Iraq and Raqqa in Syria and other ISIS strongholds in the region – saying all the while the US offensive will aid nonexistent anti-Assad “moderate terrorist” forces and Iraqi Kurds in their “liberating” struggle, while in fact assisting Erdogan's war against Syria, which purportedly is receiving no Western help [except turning a blind eye to ISIL's stolen oil sales via NATO Turkey].

Carter's claims that Washington intends defeating ISIS is pure rubbish -- stating that “extraordinary challenges (lie) ahead” is simply code language for endless war.

US bombing of Iraq and Syria since 2014 struck no ISIS targets or infrastructure, instead they targeted al-Assad's government infrastructures and forces only.

Carter's announcement may be the Pentagon's attempt to counter Russia's effective war on ISIS in Syria, while also hoping to prevent Iraq from requesting vitally needed help from Russia.

Putin is the only major world leader actively combating ISIS, Russia's military is proving extremely effective against ISIS while aiding Syrian ground forces to retake lost territory.

Carter's scheme is designed to help ISIS and other terrorist factions, not combat this scourge.
