Voting for George W Obama or Mitt Reagan is not really an option for thinking Americans; however, the plutocrats are also aware of this situation so they devised a system whereby other contenders, not under their influence, would be deprived of the means -- MONEY -- to become widely KNOWN, which would ultimately undermine their viability as contenders.

Without information/knowledge voters spread or dilute their votes, which effectively neutralises any negative impact on the favoured show pony, puppet 'contenders;' a not very sophisticated but nevertheless effective means of channelling votes to the major parties.

Faced with extremely limited choices it is little wonder that few intelligent or unintelligent Americans even take the trouble to vote; notwithstanding that the only opportunity to participate in national politics is forfeited! There goes the fundamental basis of any democracy, active PARTICIPATION in the direction a nation is taking!

So what to do?

Now, so there is absolutely no misunderstanding, I would attempt to explain why capable people opt for direct action and the subversion of a perverse unjust system rather than submit to the soul destroying humiliation of constantly sucking corporate cock!

VOTE WITH A BULLET, BOMB or other appropriate subversive medium/means that ensures your voice will be heard! [You think he jests?]

Understand that this action is legally supported and approved by Washington's new 'disposition matrix,' a method which secretly selects victims for Drone target practice and extra-judicial murder/terror! Though it must be stated that under every known civil and international law this action is a gross criminal act but aren't we lucky our American exceptionalism exempts us from all responsibility and allows us to learn by the examples our leaders set?

Indeed, there are numerous ways to participate in your democracy and defy the plutocrats; your actions are only limited by your imaginations, so go on, be a good citizen and PARTICIPATE, make your vote mean something!
