Turnbull has recently proven the only thing he is really interested in is himself and his obsessive desire to become Australia's PM, as though that is an end in itself. Turnbull has been given ample time to prove himself, which he did. He not only hasn't repealed any of the harsh social policies that Abbott inflicted on the struggling Australian people - while of course favouring the corporate/banker elite - he failed to make his mark in the international arena. However, prior to continuing I would simply state that government revenue problems and the obvious lack of funds are the result of the corporate sector not paying their due - the simple, fair and Australian rule is, 'those that benefit most from the nation should return most to the nation, what is fairer than that? Those who can afford to pay should pay their due, which clearly is NOT occurring, as Turnbull, a former banker and lying lawyer, represents the interests of the UNREPRESENTATIVE minority elite and NOT the people.

Malcolm Turnbull, unelected Oz PM

Turnbull has revealed the price he pays to fulfil his narcissistic dream, he has acquiesced like no other PM before him to minority interests and hard line conservatives in his party, all because he wants to be PM no matter how short-lived that tenure may be!

Abbott was a nightmare for Australia, no doubt, however, that simpleton at least had the integrity to pursue his convictions and ideals, notwithstanding how unfair and idiotic some of them were. Abbott stated in the media that his hero is Winston Churchill, whom he tried but failed to emulate, NOW, take a closer look at Churchill -- Abbott's harsh, unfair and cruel policies on the masses are easily traced to an elitist ideology.

Turnbull, however, is reputed to be a moderate and Republican, nevertheless, he sold out to the conservative hard liners in his party and now abandons his previous passion for a Republic in order to maintain his tenure, proving that believes only in his own vain interests. What a tragic figure he presented when hopeless opposition leader, Bill Shorten, called him out on the Republican issue. Turnbull's response was, to paraphrase, 'I was defeated once before and have no desire to be defeated again,' notwithstanding he has the support of the vast majority of State leaders and the public, every Australian is aware that it's time to cut the legal/political apron strings from the failed British Empire, the British monarchy simply does NOT represent the MAJORITY of Aussies, in fact Anglo-Aussies are now in the minority, therefore it's TIME for Australia to declare its sovereignty as an INDEPENDENT INCLUSIVE NATION, but spineless, integrity DEVOID Turnbull let it fly.

Abbott on the other hand stuck to his misguided guns and awarded an Australian honour to a British Monarch, Prince Phillip, which, along with other outrageous stupid follies and gross misjudgements, cost him his job. Abbott was a pathologically lying dunce but had integrity, which is only one required skill for leadership, Abbott had no other positive attributes. But Turnbull is obsessed with being PM though he fails to understand that LEADERSHIP, INTEGRITY, CONVICTION AND SELFLESS SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE/NATION ARE REQUIRED to be a good Prime Minister. In fact, Turnbull is PROVING to be a 'do-nothing' narcissist Rudd number two. He couldn't even lead in that regard!

Now, on the world stage Turnbull ignored AUSTRALIAN traditional values and kowtowed to the world's leading civilian killing, law flouting nation in Washington, he idiotically stated that it's the "values we share" with bandit, dog-eat-dog America that maintains our relationship/bonds, well, need I state that the land of the 'fair go' and mutual cooperation (MATESHIP) are diametrically opposed to dog-eat-dog, criminal America, which has legalised torture, practices extra-judicial murders and boasts of secret 'kill lists' - give a true blue Aussie a break, you spineless, subservient clown, Turnbull. Furthermore, Turnbull ignored the opportunity to assert our values and respect for the rule of law, by not withdrawing our military from America's proven illegal campaign in Syria - 'good one,' Mr lawyer Turnbull!

And that is not the end of it, Australia is currently footing the bill for American colonial occupation forces stationed in Darwin. Australia has no need for foreign troops on OUR soil, as we occupy one of the most critical regions in the world and any half-baked politician could utilise our position to great advantage - Australia is not anyone's lackey nation of convenience, notwithstanding the FACT that allowing America to launch attacks from Oz is against national security interests as Oz is now a primary nuclear target which is directly the result of spineless, no idea, leadership, past and present, you had your chance, Turnbull.

How easy it would be to take advantage of our geographical position in today's world, but it's better to remain subservient to a war-mongering criminal USA, according to jellyfish Turnbull, after all, Turnbull may be required to actually display some real leadership!

No doubt as we approach the polls more of Turnbull's true character will be exposed, so quick Malcolm, force a DD election before the TRUTH catches up with you!

Regardless of how you view Turnbull he adds up to one very unexciting, talentless, proven FRAUD!
