

The Gargantuan Media Blind Spot

The international refugee crisis has been saturating the news for some time yet the cause -- Washington's grossly illegal regime change wars and CIA supported proxy fighting groups -- are never mentioned as the obvious cause. Now note that the vast, if not all refugees issue from regions and nations the US and its lackey NATO partner have destabilised, FACT! So how is it possible that western news outlets overlook the CAUSE of the problem and delay the simple cure?

The answer is obvious as the truth is as plain to see as is the nose on your uninformed stupid faces, if you're capable of seeing that? Millions of Syrian and North African refugees now housed in compliant Middle Eastern nations are creating huge internal problems and crises and so those nations are allowing people to access people smuggling routes out to Europe -- and that is the refugee crisis in a nutshell, but you'll never see it spelled out in the corporate owned and CFR managed western mass media, and that includes so-called 'independent' public broadcasters, shame on you for letting the public down!

The situation is so absurd today it amounts to reporting that people are getting wet without mentioning rain! Furthermore, the farcical US election charade continues when a little research indicates that Hillary is the chosen one (by the Bilderberg group), she was promised the position but only after Obama was elevated to power. For those interested, research the Bilderberg meeting in Virginia, to which Hillary and Obama were ordered to attend.

If the majority of people are unable to connect the obvious dots in the entire ruse/charade that is presented as democratic freedoms and the contrived war on terror and arrive at glaring truths then indeed they deserve what they get, evermore destabilisation, state oppression and economic hardship, compliments of a tiny mega-wealthy nefarious group known as the global elite, which own the mass media and other enterprises that profit from war, destabilisation and mayhem.

The current plague of mass ignorance/deception, for which there is no excuse as the truth is readily accessible and plain to see, could only be described as the greatest social tragedy of all time. And of course, the blame falls directly on the majority for consuming the lies, distortions and propaganda of the nefarious elites that view humanity as ignorant, EXPENDABLE slaves that are easily managed by the treacherous and lying mass media.

I hope you are all proud of yourselves for allowing rampant State criminality and puppet politicians to deceive you and continue to cause havoc and hardship in OUR world -- in fact, you disgust me and if there's any consolation to be found it is in the reality that very soon you would have earned your reward -- GLOBAL ECONOMIC CHAOS and WAR! Plain to see for those that have eyes to see.
