

Obama's Phone call to Putin

Just when you think you've seen and heard the most extreme absurdity another rears its head, this time in the form of puppet president and errand boy, Obama, demanding that Putin cease his highly successful bombing campaign against what Obama calls Syrian "opposition forces."

'Opposition forces,' ay! Not long ago the US openly admitted that it is utilising the services of 'moderate' Jihadis (terrorists) in its pursuit of internationally illegal 'regime change' in Syria; the difference between a moderate and extreme terrorist is that one decapitates with a blunt knife -- give the thinking global population a break.

The al-Nusra front, one of the 'moderate' terrorist groups backed, trained and supplied by US vassals Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Turkey to pursue WASHINGTON'S illegal regime change strategy against the elected, LEGITIMATE government of Syria, is an al-Qaeda affiliate, fact! Remember al-Qaeda, once the most vile, murdering group of criminals on earth according to the Bush regime and of course the arch-enemy of freedom-loving, peaceful America? Well now guess what, they have been re-badged and declared 'opposition forces,' notwithstanding that most are FOREIGN fighters, NOT Syrians. I won't even attempt to explain what a real opposition is; suffice to say legitimate oppositions are locals not foreign fighters imported to destabilise a nation. Furthermore, real oppositions are the other major political party in houses of GOVERNMENT and never carry guns -- or blunt knives -- can you believe the simplistic illogic of the US/Obama on these imported mercenary killers?

US 'think' (fog) tanks better come up with something a bit more believable than re-badging an arch-enemy of the US and calling them "moderate opposition forces," we surely do not wish to concern the media-lobotomised American public, do we?

Sergei Lavrov, Russia's FM once responded to this moderate terrorist absurdity by simply stating, "if it walks, talks and kills like a terrorist, then it's a terrorist," pure and simple. However, the USA is so caught up in its criminal convolutions it can't extricate itself from its own bulldust and consequently makes the most ludicrous claims and statements. Could you imagine Putin at the other end of the phone attempting to hold back a laughing fit? Yea, sure, Barack we won't harm a hair on the head of legitimate political opposition but we sure will wipe out every terrorist in Syria and so it continues.

The credibility of the US/Obama is now in the minuses, tell us another one, Barack, you pathetic stooge!
