

The Future is Bleak as the Global Population Begins to Awaken

To say the western mass media today is a joke, is to understate the reality, the propaganda on American military interventionism, the exposed lies of illegal wars, which the mass media ran full steam with, are as shameless and transparent as the cult of the hero/leader (worship) of Nazi Germany and Stalinist Russia.

Demented Plutocrat and CFR member Murdoch with Jerry 'varnish remover' Hall

It's not enough that elite interests now control western governments and the concentrated mass media, they are required to do it subtly if they do not wish to hang from light poles. Using the same tired lying formulas and methods, scare tactics etc, are simply not cutting it any more. The result of course is mass disillusionment as elite serving lying western governments unravel.

As the corporate-banker controlled US government falls over itself trying unsuccessfully not to reveal the truth, its comical/tragic bungling actually reveals more plain truths than it wishes to hide, especially about corruption at the top and who is behind all America's illegal interventionist wars, which elite serving sycophants and political puppets attempt to sell to the public as legitimate.

Kissinger protégé, lying hound Obama, reneged on almost every pre-election promise he made to the people and immediately implemented elite policies. Cameron, Merkel and the rest are no better, however, former Oz PM Abbott was the most duplicitous of them all, he actually did the reverse of every promise he made and idiotically expected to get away with it because plutocrat Murdoch assured him of support, notwithstanding that senile old fool Murdoch is now ready to be cleaned out by ex-model Jerry Hall. The current state of world affairs is probably best described as nightmare as elite forces push nations to the brink of nuclear war. What I'm stating very clearly is that the global public sees through the tissue thin lies, corporate 'trade deals' and war propaganda that issues like sewage from the CFR (elite) controlled western mass media.

Well, without mentioning the insularity and lack of awareness of the totally corrupt and mass murdering global elite, allow me to predict the outcome, violent local revolutions, globally!

The greed at the corrupt top knows no bounds while the wealth disparity gap is now a chasm so broad that the only remedy is hanging the elite from light poles. When that day surely arrives, if the elite do not plunge the world into nuclear war first, then I would take no pleasure or credit for predicting what a blind man could see.

This is the price the world pays for allowing global elite interests to lord over nations. The elite have failed, to put it simply, and they will pay the price as will every political and corporate servant at their disposal -- you can back it in!

History does not lie when repeated trends culminate in known outcomes; it's a pity all the consultants the elite hires lack historical knowledge and plain common (horse) sense. I mean, what did the elite expect, millions of abused victims to thank them for the conditions they suffer as a result of elite policies and unbridled GREED?

The real war of the future will not be among nations it will be the overwhelming global masses against an easily vanquished, rotten to the core, minority, so watch out for WWIII, people. However, we ARE able to stop it by acting now before it's too late.
