

When it's Personal

When or if you find yourself in custody for nothing or for making a joke about hopeless, corrupt puppet governments and sadist police or military interrogators begin their 'enhanced interrogation' techniques on YOU, you will soon learn what torture is and though you are unable to move, as you would have been restrained, do not imagine that you don't move, something changes inside you; you begin to rage over the injustice and the needless cruelty. And if you are fortunate enough to be released back into a society of people that do not want to know, your rage increases and almost everyone is to blame, directly or indirectly, APATHY is the reason the world and civilisation have been lost to avaricious psychopaths and criminals in white collars and ties -- yes, YOU, and your stinking selfishness and cowardice are to blame!

And so the injustice breeds in you like a virulent virus and you become exactly what the interrogators perceived you to be -- but you become more, a terrorist without a cause, though rage is cause enough, and now that you realise that no-one gives a shit, it doesn't matter who dies as no-one is innocent.

And so it becomes plain to see that the world's leading terrorist nation, America, is the world's leading terrorist creator. Congratulations you spangled brutes, you were always a rustic, brutal, moronic mass murdering culture and the sooner you are nuked by Russia and China the better. You are a scourge, a poison on the earth; perpetual war, millions of needless innocent deaths, each one creating three or five more that hate you with a passion -- "why do they hate us?" Give me a break!

Each time my body aches from that 'interrogation,' I remember you and the stinking, moronic drones that inhabit your land; yay, Trump, yay, Clinton, yay, whoever, as the only relief for the world is to obliterate the entire North American continent, after all, it was one of your Zionist neocons that said, "what's the point of having nuclear weapons if you don't use them." Well, it's caught on, fascist Trump is saying the same thing -- so use them PLEASE, blast open the door to (your) oblivion!
