"... And man shall walk as if asleep
He does not look, he dares not speak"

-- Mother Shipton, 16th century prophetess

There are certain universal laws which cannot be avoided, one of them is the law of consequence or karma. We shall all justly inherit our fate. Surely it is better to at least try to rein in the psychopaths propelling the world into a nuclear nightmare. Do not imagine that the mentally ill, whether they control governments or not, are sane -- they actually think a nuclear conflict is winnable.
