

Turnbull Chickens Out, Big Time!

by bruce Wednesday, Jun 8 2016, 12:18am

international / prose / post

On top of all the known failings of our useless, puppet leaders, Aussies have been treated to yet another, COWARDICE, this one will not go down well with Aussies.

Gutless fraud, Malcolm Turnbull

Malcolm Turnbull, who prides himself on his lawyer's ability to talk and persuade has been advised by his dead-head consultants not to show for the scheduled peoples' debate with both leaders, it's too chancey, they advise. He might get caught out on his FEEBLE rhetoric and scripted LIES, someone may confront him with a REAL issue and expose him for what he actually is, a puppet of the big business elite and gutless coward, too afraid to risk exposure.

His 'trickle down economics' budget for the rich corporations is an historically proven failure, nevertheless, gutless puppet Turnbull allowed numerous vested interests to design it in their own interest. Of course there are many more flaws in Turnbull's rhetoric and 'NPD' personality, which the people have a RIGHT to probe and question him about; however, in response to criticism for cancelling, Turnbull said he would field questions from the public on Facebook, where, as we all know, anyone could answer, given the time and anonymity it affords, as it's NOT a spontaneous FACE-TO-FACE debate, which always exposes LIARS and FRAUDS.

Shame on you Turnbull, you gutless wonder, face the Australian people, not only on this occasion but many more prior to the election. Any Aussie leader with INTEGRITY who aspires to lead would not hesitate to take questions from the public. Woe, woe, woe to Malcolm, his Libs and his chicken-shit consultants and vested interests, who really run the Liberal Party, obvious! Turnbull is well depicted in Brisbane as a "cardboard" cutout.

Report from the Courier Mail follows:

Malcolm Turnbull cardboard cutout stands in for real thing in Brisbane

by Trenton Akers

BRISBANE residents have had an unexpected sighting of Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull [as a cardboard cutout] this afternoon, in light of confirmation he will not attend the leaders' debate with Opposition Leader Bill Shorten tonight.

The Courier-Mail took a life-size cardboard cutout into the CBD to visit iconic Brisbane locations and get locals reactions to the Prime Minister's no-show for tonight's Courier-Mail/Sky News People's Forum.

Mr Shorten will appear by himself, fielding questions from 100 undecided voters, with Mr Turnbull saying he would only take questions online from platforms such Facebook because "it's the 21st century".

Many Brisbane locals voiced their dismay at the Prime Minister, saying he was ignoring Brisbane and Queensland, a key battleground for the upcoming election.

"You need to get your face out there and see people face to face if you want them to vote for you," Gizelle Todd said.

The two-dimensional Mr Turnbull was reminiscent of a similar version of Peter Beattie, which The Courier-Mail took to the streets of Forde during the 2013 campaign when the former-premier-turned-federal-candidate was missing in action.

Copyright applies to external text.

<http://tinyurl.com/zfqgv8h>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-2259.html>