"We know this now more clearly than ever that the Howard government took us to war on a lie. Every time it said that Iraq had a massive arsenal of weapons of mass destruction and it was cooperating with al-Qaida it knew that that was not the case, that it was either clearly not the case or at best for them it was ambiguous. They took us to war on a lie. No wonder John Howard and Tony Blair and George W. Bush do stand accused of war crimes. I'd like them to see an international court. I would like them to defend their position and try to prove their innocence because all of those people who do accuse them of war crimes, I think make a pretty compelling case."

The Coalition of WILLING Criminals

Buried in the mainstream 'news' is a statement by INDEPENDENT Australian MP and former military officer, Andrew Wilkie, who has stated the case plainly: Blair, Bush and Howard should stand trial in an international court for war crimes, as their 'Coalition of Willing Criminals' is responsible for the deaths of millions of innocent civilians, the displacement of five million more and the ruin of a once stable sovereign nation, which today has become a breeding ground for the likes of ISIS and other murderous terrorists.

If these three criminal former leaders have nothing to fear they should eagerly take the opportunity to clear their names; however, all three, assisted by nefarious media interests, are avoiding that prospect like the plague, which indicates much.

Clearly, the ONLY way JUSTICE would be served is if the global population exercised its prerogative and DEMANDED that these men stand trial. A unified popular DEMAND by the global public would make the issue plain one way or the other and bring the matter to finality. Indeed, as previously stated, if these three puppet criminal leaders, which pursued a concerted, illegal criminal elite agenda imagine they are innocent then let them defend their case, the EVIDENCE demands it!

They stand condemned not only by their own public statements but also by incontrovertible evidence that the lies they told were clearly orchestrated well before the illegal and calamitous invasion of Iraq. The world now faces a hugely increased threat of terrorist activity as a direct result of the heinous crimes of these three men and their respective administrations. The FACTS are plain and freely available in the public domain! We MUST demand a trial or the entire globe would suffer continued criminal activity from those in high office.
