I have just witnessed H. Clinton attempting to come across to the American people as just your average family woman, she also stated that Trump can't be trusted with nuclear weapons if he gains office, well, true but Clinton is far less trustworthy than Trump in that regard.

Lying, deceitful, Wall St puppet Hillary Clinton has accepted the nomination of her party as the running candidate for the presidency of the most powerful military nation on earth, though Russia and China are able to obliterate continental America should that option become an imperative.

Both Clintons are known quantities in the USA and around the world, they are both shameless puppets of the oligarchs tightly connected to the Bilderberg group and the CFR or ruling elite shadow government of Western nations. The Clintons serve minority interests, not the American people, implicitly -- fact! Their records speak loud and clear.

So now that Sanders has disgraced himself by endorsing and urging his followers to support Clinton, the head and body of establishment politics is easily discerned by anyone with a functional brain and eyes to see.

Clinton's managed carnival is as transparent as wet toilet paper. She is now being presented as responsible, balanced, stable and a trustworthy leader. What a total farce, almost the entire world is aware of her despicable lies, crimes, disregard for average people and service to her elite masters, notwithstanding the fact she is also a dangerous psychopath, the perfect choice for the mass murdering criminal elite, which is currently planning a nuclear third world war; which fact makes Clinton's accusation against populist Trump, that 'he can't be trusted with nuclear weapons,' a pathetic joke! It was Clinton who as secretary of State, pathologically delighted in the murder of Libyan leader Gaddafi, who was sodomised with a knife before he died. However, that minor fact didn't disturb our little lying psychopath Hillary. She blurted, "we came, we saw, he died," not only admitting responsibility but admitting national culpability while gloating all the while about the demise of Gaddafi, which leader's nation is now in chaos, ruins and destabilised to the extreme. Yes, very well done psychopath Hillary, and yet this insane bitch attempts to sell herself as competent and responsible with nuclear arsenals -- give the thinking world a break!

Clinton has admitted publicly that she is guided by elite groups the video below is yet another example of her loose mouth in incriminating herself and spilling the beans about the REAL shadow government of the USA. Truly, what a pathetic very dangerous show the current presidential election is. It is hoped that in gun-crazed America both running candidates are taken down before either one of them takes down the entire planet.
