

Members of US Senate Oppose Obama Plan for $1 trillion nuclear weapons 'modernisation'

If it wasn't so tragic (and deceptive) you'd have to laugh at the way the transparent mass media and shadow government deals with critically IMPORTANT news. Just before Obama's orchestrated and well timed visit to Hiroshima and before puppet Liar-in-Chief made peace speeches to the world, Obama quietly sanctioned military plans to overhaul, "modernise" America's nuclear arsenal at an estimated cost of almost one trillion dollars, which action makes his 'peace' speeches just another lying con/ruse -- it is an OPEN secret that plans are underway to attack Russia and China in order to 'subdue/contain' these two superpowers and force them to conform to Washington's dictates, fat chance! The fact that Russia and China are sovereign independent nations with a combined military strength that exceeds that of the US/NATO, seems to be lost on neocon psychopaths behind this push for "Full Spectrum Dominance/Pax Americana" or nuclear war in plain words.

Now consider how many people in western nations are aware of this insane push for war and the THREAT it poses to the entire world, very few indeed. The elite-owned mass media has focused on the speeches Obama delivered at Hiroshima rather than 'his' (neocon) plan to increase the risk of nuclear war, isn't that 'little' oversight and focus away from critical policy news just typical of the media distraction industry? Headlines remain as usual, to list a few in Australia, notwithstanding a similar pattern is evident throughout the western world, as the New York based CFR controls ALL western 'news'/propaganda, isn't that right, Rupert? See below:

"[Justin] Bieber's Aussie Fling," "Woman killed saving Children from Sex offender," "Kidnappers threaten to behead Ecclestone's mum," "Bindi Irwin's [daughter of Steve] most daring moments," "Aussie [who is actually Tongan] flagbearer steals the [Rio] show," "Most famous celebs born same year as you," and on it goes, inane drivel, all of it, though it is clearly an INTENTIONAL DISTRACTIVE STRATEGY, as undue focus on the elite agenda must be avoided at all costs lest the masses wake to the international very REAL threat that affects EVERYONE -- which is, preparations for a nuclear conflict/war!

One has to go to some effort to dig for REAL news; of course the elite are aware that the majority passively CONSUME what is offered rather than exert the least effort to discover what sordid, LUNATIC PLANS criminal psychopaths in Washington have in store for us all.

So, ignorant, uninformed, lamers, continue being led by your titillated noses and empty heads, as you are all assured of a very rude awakening, by which time it will be too late to act to save yourselves -- and I do not apologise for calling a spade a spade and an apathetic moron a MORON. The fact remains, the masses are the most powerful social force on the planet, do you imagine that it's accidental you are all fed Kardashian's tits or similar on a daily basis at the expense of your own survival?

I concur with the article and sentiments expressed below, 'you deserve what you get,' you mindless morons. But do not forget to CONSUME the unadulterated SHIT the mass media offers rather than save your own lives and the planet. Notice I haven't asked you to ACT in your own interests, I KNOW better!
