the Sooner Democracy will be RESTORED

Yes, indeed, today democracy is DEAD and has been for decades. Minority, mega-wealthy special interests have taken ownership and control of ALL western governments, plain to see.

Our politicians LIE to the people through their teeth only to serve minority interests after they take the oath -- is there anyone that doubts it? If so crawl back under the rock you hide under, REALITY is your enemy.

Now/TODAY that the MAJORITY has finally realised the TRUTH -- specifically that democracy is dead -- it becomes an inevitability that the corrupt system that oppresses the masses will come to an end; that is a given, BUT the critical factor is TIME. Of course if we know the TRUTH so do the evil mass murdering elites that currently hold sway over our governments and consequently it becomes a matter of which group takes the initiative first -- doing nothing is no longer an option. If the masses act first then wars and mayhem everywhere, initiated and maintained by profit-only seeking elites would cease and relative peace and democracy would be restored. However, if the currently panic-stricken elites take action first, via Hillary Clinton, their puppet, then the entire world would be thrown into chaos and destruction culminating in a world-shattering nuclear conflict between superpowers.

I mean really, does anyone have any difficulty seeing things as they are? ALL western governments serve minority wealthy elites as their policies clearly reveal. Globalisation in the form of trade deals only benefit the minority which group now wish to override the sovereignty of nations and force them to pay for projected profits should the people reject one of their polluting, self-serving enterprises -- are you ready to be held to ransom by these banker and corporate thieves? I would hope not! How much more ruin, blood-letting and chaos for the profits of a few, do you wish to bear?

Yes, it all boils down to money and the power to corrupt it provides and so we must act to remove all unrepresentative governments and hold treasonous, lying, clearly criminal politicians to account and then target the corporations and banks that own them. We are being duped and robbed blind by the current system, which is no longer tenable.

The global Reserve Banking cartel prints worthless paper money from thin air and then lends it out at interest and the WORLD is forced to repay these artificially created debts with REAL value items, such as your underpaid labour/sweat and other valued commodities which you provide for trade -- nations are being ruined as I write by this clearly absurd system/con, however, nations are populated with aware majorities today and so, the sooner we ACT the better. Otherwise I'm very sorry to say, it would be too late and the wealthy elites would trigger chaos and war on an unimaginable scale in order to protect their interests and skins.

Watch and listen to 'our' politicians carefully when they speak, and their lying, duplicitous faces will become unmistakably apparent; faces and bodies do not LIE. The choice of continued debt-slavery -- obvious today -- and REAL freedom and democracy is a matter of a simple choice and action, at work, home and in the streets. No minority in history has ever prevailed against the masses, however, they ALL thought they could, so its war or freedom, CHOOSE! Hillary Clinton should be on trial not vying for the presidency on behalf of her elite masters.

There is no REAL news other than THIS -- do not allow yourselves to be distracted by the elite-owned mainstream media, confront the horrid reality that faces us all and understand we ARE able to remedy it.
