

The Literal American Dream(World)

The world is witnessing America in the raw, especially the race for the presidency in this PROFOUNDLY lost nation. Lost! You bet it is, as the vast majority of Americans live in a media constructed dreamworld. Remember Donald Rumsfeld's, infamous statement, "We know Saddam has WMD because he just has!" I mean really, this is the 'statement/argument' of an infantile pea-brain, but it worked ON MEDIA LOBOTOMISED, Americans. No real evidence was ever supplied to mount the illegal war on Iraq, which resulted in a ruined nation today.

And to bolster support for US criminal pursuits, which were rejected by the UN and other international bodies, a 'coalition of willing criminals' was formed comprising of only two other lackey nations, the UK and Australia. Now recall the CONCERTED lies; poodle Blair, stated publicly and in the UK parliament that Saddam could mount an "attack on the UK in 45 minutes," totally implausible and almost as transparent and in-credible as Rumsfeld's absurd statements. Then John Howard of apron-string Australia, alleged that Saddam was purchasing "aluminium tubing for use in nuclear reactors" -- give sanity a break, LIES and NONSENSE, all of it, now verified!

The filthy coalition criminal triumvirate then embarked on illegal wars against numerous nations, and continues to do so today. Has it yet occurred to the American people today that US involvement in Syria is grossly illegal, directly, ground troops and bases, and indirectly via supported proxy fighting groups like Al Qaeda and ISIL? Not on your life! Americans are now 'fascinated' with Trump vs Hillary, two media-managed puppets of the ruling elite. And you think its a real race not a contrived, staged event, do you? Morons is too mild a term to describe Americans today.

How about Russia hacking Democratic Party emails -- based on what? The exact same vaporous 'substance' of non-existent WMDs; surely it would be incumbent on all Americans after exposed lie after lie, to demand proof THIS TIME of wild and extremely dangerous accusations. But of course there's a long tradition in the USA of making the most outrageous accusations and fabricated LIES without a vestige of proof in support; you see, the ruling shadow government is aware that the population is captured and is easily led like blind dumb sheep led to the slaughter.

Now, has the recent deplorable history of duping the public served to awaken Americans from their stupor -- not a chance, they're dancing to the same fiddler today, even as I write, tragic!

Now understand how deep elite control is in America; president Obama was ordered to make the Russia hacking accusation himself from the White House -- again, providing no evidence WHATSOEVER, do you require more proof of puppet government, and a GULLIBLE population that lives in a dreamworld?

However, there is a cost to everything, and the cost of such extreme transparent lies, fabrications and distractions is that the aware WORLD sees America for what it is, a very dangerous insane asylum!

American credibility pays the price

The USA today has all the credibility of a two cent whore, and the integrity of a cockroach. That's how the WORLD world sees you, America, and if you think that's irrelevant, think again, without support, you are finished -- and you are losing support at light speed, even infant Australian politicians are re-thinking the one-sided relationship with the star 'sprangled,' broken banner.

But what's worse is TODAY, right NOW, we see the exact same formula employed to dupe the American masses YET AGAIN; attention grabbing, media focused distractions on the absurd elections, to the exclusion of critical matters and REAL news. The outcome of the elections mean nothing, Washington itself is ruled by mega-wealthy banking and corporate forces, plain to SEE, which forces that hide behind owned politicians are responsible for ALL the pollution disrupting our climate and planet and ALL the mass murdering wars of the past 15 years -- or haven't you noticed that these are all ILLEGAL corporate wars? Probably not, yay Trump, yay, Hillary! You pathetic, mindless morons.
