

The Unravelling of the American Oligarchy

The race for the U.S. presidency by two social 'bottom-feeders,' Clinton and Trump, is mass media depicted in vassal Australia as the "most unpredictable" election race in U.S. history -- this type of presentation is a media device well known in mass communication studies. Shift focus away from the central point of any explosive event, which in this case is sordid high level criminality and depict it as "unpredictable," a very soft, misleading term intended to distract and shift focus away from the UGLY truth/REALITY. Now consider all the sordid details involved in this orchestrated (by the Oligarchy) "race" for the office of chief puppet/SERVANT of the ruling elite or 'shadow government,' as it is popularly known.

Hillary Clinton, universally despised, expendable puppet of the ruling elite

The crimes and deceptions of the Clintons are legendary and so gross and plain to see that Washington officials are now running for cover, as the outcome of this clearly rigged election race could possibly destabilise American society and the entrenched power of the Oligarchy, and that is something that instills fear in the 'shadow government' and their EXPENDABLE government 'fall guys,' particularly the Comey group and other 'high' officials in Washington -- the real portrait of 'Dorian Grey' is revealing itself in all its ugly and horrific detail, which in this case is that America is a slave society government by unrepresentative elite criminals that act behind the scenes to benefit themselves while deceiving/exploiting the population and creating mayhem throughout the WORLD for personal gain. Obvious facts which have US vassal States worried at this stage of America's unravelling -- numerous nations worldwide are reconsidering their relationship with the clearly criminal, self-interested, exploitative, destructive and mass murdering USA, which clings to the tattered illusion that it alone is the exceptional nation above the LAW and is 'destined' to rule the world, a total pathological absurdity in the REAL world!

Hillary Clinton is detested by Americans for good reason, she is an undisguised puppet of the mega-wealthy ruling elite and a very inept criminal LIAR/deceiver, which invests her with liability status. Her lies and deceit are easier to detect than a five-year-old with chocolate on its lips stating that it didn't eat from the cookie jar; the elite-serving Clintons are a known and detested quantity in the U.S. and regardless of ALL the compromising mass media information intentionally designed to destroy Trump the Oligarchy is aware that Trump is likely to win; it seems the American people are not as easily fooled or moved as they once were, so it's panic stations in elite circles, what to do?

And so we have the latest "October surprise," another inane media expression in the form of reopening the Clinton email server scandal by the FBI. However, FBI director Comey is clearly covering his arse, as the material in question is white hot and would result in huge negative ramifications for all officials involved in the farce of clearing Hillary of any crimes against the State, crimes which today cannot be hidden, she is as guilty as sin and the PEOPLE and Oligarchy know it! So, do not be distracted as easily as the uninformed moronic masses you once were, as there is much more to this absurd 'race' than meets the eye.

It's anyone's guess where it will go as not even the ruling elite is sure what they will do next, will it stick to its plan to install detested Clinton or make a deal with deal-making businessman Trump, a viable and easy option, as Trump is a shameless narcissist and easily exploited, narcissism is an essential requirement for puppet political leaders today, but we shall see. However, the overriding factor is the USA will never be the same again as the whole world is watching this APPALLING, TRANSPARENT charade coming apart at the seams.

Whatever the outcome of this 'unpredictable,' media-managed presidential election farce, America's international reputation, which is already in the gutter, may indeed end up in the sewer, which is its current trajectory. The world is watching the demise, by internal corruption and lack of ability/nous, a would be delusional pseudo empire in its last throes. Whatever the Oligarchy has planned, including a pre-emptive nuclear strike on demonised 'enemies,' it's over for the 'shadowy' (until TODAY) global ruling elite families and their compliant political servants.

The entire WORLD is also acutely aware today that no nation is "indispensable."
