

'Fake News' in a World of Mass Media Misinformation and LIES

WMD, remember that chorus of lies from the CFR controlled mainstream media worldwide? But that wasn't the first BIG LIE, do you remember who shot JFK, Lee Harvey Oswald of course, bunk! Or that 9/11 wasn't an inside job -- consider just one of hundreds of implausibilities, all the surveillance cameras surrounding the Pentagon, which footage was confiscated by the FBI and secret service -- and what was offered to the public a very questionable few seconds of an airliner purportedly impacting the Pentagon. Of course no major airline wreckage was evident at the impact site, it couldn't have been, as the Pentagon was struck by a missile, images of the entry point in the building were/are widespread.

Then there's the NYC firefighters' statements of explosions all over the WTC buildings prior to the structures collapsing on their own footprints, an engineering impossibility unless demolition charges were previously set -- but that's 'real' news for the moronic masses that once believed the sky was polka-dot.

But not today I'm happy to say, people have finally woken to the orchestrated packaged news/propaganda industry headquartered in the CFR New York City, to which all mass media moguls in the western world have membership, coincidence, not likely! Now see if you can connect the dots and form a REAL picture of FAKE NEWS and REAL propaganda!

Indeed, as Josh Mitteldorf stated in his recent article, "The real reason this [fake news] issue is coming to the fore is that the American government has lost its hold on what Americans believe to be true. They [mass media] have squandered their credibility. They have fooled us once too often, and we have moved on to look elsewhere for our reality." Exactly! So who's at fault here for blowing it? Surely not the elite forces that specialise in mis/disinformation, 'crowd control' and 'perception management,' nah, couldn't be them, it must be the Russians, Chinese or Pygmies -- talk about flogging the obvious McCarthyist DEAD HORSE. If that's the best you people can do then prepare for the worst.

I can't wait for the next installment of hysterical accusations from the CFR controlled western mass media, which will be as they have recently been, as transparent as wet toilet paper. Moreover, most aware and intelligent alternative journos are not fazed in the least by this elite HYSTERIA simply because it was anticipated. What I'm saying is that you lose mainstream media, your panic, hysteria and knee-jerk reaction over YOUR loss of control is palpable. But please do your useless best with your credibility in the minuses, as it only increases public awareness of alternative REAL news sites. Here ya go people, from the lackey, mainstream, Washington Post -- thanks for all the publicity, morons!

Furthermore, you risk the entire nefarious, CRIMINALLY orchestrated PNAC plan becoming KNOWN to the WORLD. How does that flow-on effect/prospect grab you?
