

Losing their Grip -- Elites Shudder in Fear

Perhaps the strongest indication yet of failing elite rule is the absurd claim that numerous alternative media sites are Russian propaganda sites riddled with Russian agents -- another variation of Clinton's, the Russians did it and are responsible for all of America's illegal wars, and all global chaos, notwithstanding they are particularly held responsible for in-grown toenails and piles -- I wonder at times how many people actually believe this obvious and transparent propaganda crud OUTSIDE mass media-lobotomised America. Not very many, I'm happy to say.

However, that does not apply to banjo-playing Americans where the masses continue to fall for the same ol' tired media tricks/propaganda and continue to believe that they have a democratic choice, when clearly the elite shadow government rules regardless of who is installed as the latest puppet president -- the current status quo hasn't missed a beat since the puppet presidency of Bill Clinton -- now what does that suggest to YOU America? Clearly NOT the OBVIOUS!

However, of importance is the FEEBLE attempt to portray anyone that opposes mainstream LIES as Russian agents, which reveals panic and desperation in the ranks of the global elite, which also own and control the western media.

Trump's win came as a huge shock, to say the least, notwithstanding Trump has no option but to comply with the status quo -- or die in one sense or another. Nevertheless, it is true to say, based on history, that most Americans function on less than a quarter of a brain, PLAIN TO SEE! So all is not lost for the elites. But they must hurry before the masses become aware of the TRUTH. Hence the ludicrous list published by the Washington Post which medium will never recover, not that elites give a shit, they own the rest, though I do not envy the stooge that actually put his name to the fabricated story, which is only fit to be written on toilet paper.

Nevertheless, this latest panic-driven foray into the realm of the absurd indicates much. It is imperative that the shadow ruling elites maintain their privileged criminal rule by manipulating public opinion, it's called 'perception management' in informed circles. So the rightful and justified trashing of criminal candidate Clinton by the public, when the entire western media apparatus was pushing her victory as a done deal, came as a huge shock, hence the absurd attempt to portray the alternative media, now considered the most credible news sources, as agents of the "new Hitler" -- though Putin probably had the biggest laugh, as it becomes plain TO THE WORLD that elites are losing their grip on the western masses.

Indeed, all mass media outlets have suffered due to the fact that they ALL pushed the Clinton win hype, and fell on their stupid lackey faces doing so. So the attempt to portray alternative sources of news as Russian agents becomes evermore urgent but panic breeds its own problems as the attempt is pure McCarthyism, which for many budding analysts indicates that old men living in the past comprise most of the ruling elite -- notwithstanding millennials have never heard of McCarthy, a stooge of the FBI and ruling elite of the time who tried and failed to convince the American public that Hollywood and the DIVERSIFIED mass media of the time were COMMUNIST agents and sympathisers.

Surely, you would think the elites would have learned from their previous failure. But old habits die hard it seems. Perhaps I should now confess myself, as this site was not included in the 'list' that contributors here work for extra-terrestrials and are softening up the earth's population by divide and conquer tactics so they are not capable of mounting a unified attack on us when we mount our attack on the earth -- its much like the tactics America employs before it attacks weaker nations in order to steal their resources and install compliant puppet governments -- this is a gem of a planet compared to our depleted and devastated worlds, we want it and will get it one way or the other.

Now if that claim seems far fetched re-read recent earth history -- why then would anyone believe the revealing ludicrous stories in the Washington Post?
