

Cretin Power Rules the World

Fair dinkum, have you ever seen anything like today's mindless morons, all of which have difficulty thinking, adding 2+2 and other rational reasoning challenges -- I despise them, as it is they that are really responsible for the current appalling state of the world.

Now consider their value to an elite that have them nose-ringed and manage their every social move -- for Christ's sake morons, cannot you see that Trump is an irrelevancy? No one man is able to counter the power of the deeply entrenched establishment, yet these morons remain constantly distracted by inanities and irrelevancies like Trump while the nefarious, mass murdering, PARASITIC elites feed off their blood -- what hope for the world? None!

The few people that are able to think and discriminate are viewed as opponents by the cretinous masses; give them bread and circuses, not simple solutions they are unable to deal with. Deceive, kill and abuse them, send them to wars for the profit of the few, treat them as the EXPENDABLE slaves they truly are. YET we all should know that we are born with the same brain capacity and capability, we are therefore all potential Einsteins -- no excuses. However, cretins choose their ignorance rather than the hard road to achievement in any field even personal achievement to become a better person if nothing else -- all too difficult for the lazy, slobbering cretin brigade.

How very easy it is to entrap them with contradictory information and behaviour, say peace but pursue war, say prosperity and throw them onto the streets, speak Love when you torture them, they delight in it; the bigger the LIE and contradiction, the more enslaved they become, clinging even harder to their abusers -- ambivalence is the key to cretin management, every child abuser knows it, and raising families in today's world is child abuse, pure and simple. Thus the manufacture of cretins is self-perpetuating.

Fill their heads with the most preposterous lies and watch as they voluntarily choose the lie over Truth, though they know the difference, but Truth requires that they take RESPONSIBILITY, a frightening prospect for the slave mentality of cretins. You see, the truth is painful for those that live in fantasy, slavery and delusion.

However, their value to their elite abusers and masters is inestimable, as there would be no ruling elite without CRETINS.
