

Peace is the Enemy of the Ruling Elite Not Terrorism and Chaos, which They Promote

Step back a minute from the onslaught of mass media lobotomising and consider that all Trump's actions to date are intentional and entirely compatible with the agenda of the global ruling elite.

Peace is viewed as enemy not something to be sought; where there is peace and stability, arms manufacturers, the surveillance industry and all the associated corporate interests find themselves without income. It is plain to the clear thinking, media unpolluted mind that peace is anathema to the powers that be. However, perpetual war, fear, chaos, disruption, all serve the financial interests of the global elite and their corporate enterprises.

It's obvious today that the United States is geared for chaos, conflict and WAR, which conditions fills the coffers of the elite and its corporate enterprises while subjecting millions of innocent (expendable) civilians to death and hellish existences, soon to be realised in the United States itself.

Elite interests care nothing for borders, nationality or human life, plain to see, so expect the expected, external and INTERNAL CHAOS and conflict, do you really imagine that Trump's extreme divisive policies are accidental, when CLEARLY they serve the interests of the elite and their agenda?

Now NOTICE that every executive order to date of elite puppet Trump is designed to create social unrest, increase conflict and hopefully foment war, which is planned, with Saudi Arabia and Israel, for Iran. Also understand that Saudi Arabia is the world's leading terrorist sponsor and supporter, NOT Iran, though you will soon hear that Iran is responsible for ALL the unrest in the Middle East not Wahhabi, repressive regime, the House of Saud.

It becomes plain that where elite interests are threatened, by PEACE, or attacks on the greenback (Gaddafi), immediate aggressive action is undertaken to eliminate the threat to elite interests regardless of the thin pretexts offered to the media-lobotomised public.

It's all as plain as day once you stand back from the incessant propaganda that issues from the western mass media and begin to view reality as it is, NOT the false (facts) realities as presented by the 'Ministry of Truth'. A little observation of non-news realities and the exercise of 2+2 deductive reasoning easily appreciates the entire appalling and extremely disturbing reality.

For example, appreciate how all media today easily leads the masses and those that should know better in the alternative media, they all take the bait. Trump's divisive and inflammatory immigration ban is designed to create conflict, that is the reality, however, the media presents this with focus on protests, police etc, SYMPTOMS, no focus on the orchestrated real intent, which is extreme social unrest leading to repressive conditions at home and war internationally -- war with Iran is a certainty if the masses fall for the usual bait AGAIN.

Now put the whole dastardly charade together and you too will see the Truth, the elite have been supporting Trump from day one, his demagoguery, extremist divisive racist views and above all, his thin skin, make him ideal for the next stage of the elite agenda -- war with Iran, which hopefully would drag China into the fray, while Kissinger continues to advise Trump to curry favour with Putin in the hope that he would abandon his allies. He has been bought before, during the Bush regime -- no other Russian leader would have tolerated for an instant offensive missile systems installed on Russia's land borders.

Let's hope the plan fails and people begin to realise exactly how this next stage of the elite plan is operating. The cure and only chance for the world is to eliminate those that have an aversion to peace. Something easily achieved by a clear-headed MAJORITY.

There is no need to permanently turn off your media devices but there is need to stand back momentarily, collect yourself and see what is really occurring in the background. Then when you return to the media, it will become tissue-thin lies and distractions.

Remember this if nothing else, real enduring PEACE is earned never bestowed. Surely I need not remind anyone to beware of fabricated bullshit and distractions the mass media presents as truth and facts -- it's ALL a croc of shit designed to disguise the real destructive agenda, which would never be tolerated if known and understood.

The only cure for WAR is PEACE, not more war, chaos and social unrest. We must all earn our peace by relentlessly opposing the war mongers.
