

Chaos Above = Cohesion Below

The 'underground' is swelling with remarkably skilled and talented people, which of course surface culture considers criminals, they should talk! I'm referring to ethical hackers that target and weaken criminal States, especially America, the undisputed leading criminal State in the world today.

Uber hackers fight the surface criminal classes which now have all western governments in their pockets, BUT what they do not have, much to their chagrin, is the elite (best of the best) Uber hackers, aware and highly effective social analysts/activists, amazingly intelligent strategists, which are easily able to sway public opinion and steer global events via pitching States against States etc; These Uber groups, loosely working together, are winning the day against the evil surface milieu of criminals currently ruining our planet and plunging OUR world into violent 'perpetual war' chaos. Does it make sense now, you gutless, useless morons that the most skilled have gone underground where they are unidentified and FREE to function effectively and, if you think the world is going to hell in a hand-basket, you ain't seen nothin' yet!

The surface world of chaos, now mostly populated by nose-ringed morons led by a monied criminal elite, is in for the shock of its life, more compromising information leaks, the sources of which would be cleverly attributed, as always, to the wrong party -- LOL!

Wikileaks has been very effective as a surface player but its days are numbered as most real activity issues from the underground, where all manner of transactions and events are planned and executed. The 'dark web/net' dwarfs the surface net and remains largely unaffected by surface interference, as it thrives on the infrastructure shared by both realms. No effective measures exist to thwart the underground.

Of course DARPA could flick a switch and kill the internet, but it would also throw the world's economy, particularly the markets and financial sectors, into a tail spin, so as this group, the monied surface elite, OWNS western and Eastern governments, killing the internet is unlikely though possible and we have planned for such an event, have you, surface MORONS? Fair dinkum, pushing the button on you lot would be a pleasure as you have had ample time to remedy the chaos above and you have FAILED miserably in every aspect to remove the cancer eating away at open society; therefore, you're not worth a pinch of shit, to use an accurate Aussie expression, and to use another, you surface lot are incapable of 'feeding yourselves,' which means you are indeed hope-less in every way.

And so the game is afoot big time, not that lobotomised TV watching morons and those that lead them are aware, though certain agencies have determined most compromising activity cannot be sourced -- LOL!

Yes, we are young but we are INVISIBLE, smarter and more skilled than you, enough said except for, fasten your seat belts!

[A final message for the surface elites. You control very little today as you have created a two-edged sword, tnx! Keep watching with blind eyes, it's all mostly out of your range, you sick, mass murdering bastards.]
