

Syrian Gas Attack yet Another Western Ruse to Justify Illegal Balkanisation

I mean really, anyone that believes the hyper-ludicrous claim of a gas attack by Syrian government forces is simply a moron -- history has taught the rest of the WORLD that these 'false flag' attacks are utilised to justify more intervention illegalities by US led forces.

Deep State lackey, 'president' Donald Trump

People should note recent recorded HISTORY; all previous attacks used to justify intervention have ALL been proven to have been orchestrated by the West, or have you forgotten Tony Blair's absurd statement in the UK parliament that Saddam was able to 'launch an attack on Britain in 45 minutes,' or perhaps the claim of non-existent Iraqi WMDs may trigger your memories, then of course "rodent" Australian PM John Howard joining the criminal interventionist fray claiming that Saddam was obtaining "aluminium tubing" to be used in centrifuges to create nuclear weapons! Well ALL of it was balderdash, utter crap. But we should not forget where the interventionist tactic was first used, in the Balkans to fragment a sovereign nation, Yugoslavia, into numerous powerless and dependent on the West, statelets, Montenegro only has a population of 600,000, yet this is an acceptable number for a 'nation' by NATO, which sordid alliance desires the strategic value of Montenegro in the Adriatic -- give me a break!

The reports of the public market bombings killing civilians in Croatian disputed territory and corpses lined in a row for western cameras, without any trace of blood in Kosovo, have all since been decried and proven to have been staged in order to facilitate ILLEGAL, to this day, 'regime change' and national fragmentation.

Now consider the context and circumstances of these alleged government gas attacks in Syria, which killed numerous children and civilians, great camera/emotive tugs. After all, who condones the killing of children, well clearly the USA, its embargos on Iraq killed more than 500,000 INNOCENT Iraqi children prior to the illegal invasion of Iraq, and remember what US Sec. of State Albright said at the time when questioned on 60 minutes, "... it was worth it," worth the oil, indeed, you American mass murdering, interventionist bastards!

Russia and the Syria government have all but trounced Western and Gulf State armed, trained and supplied, proxy Jihadi fighters in Syria, which immediately prompted the US to show its dirty criminal hand by illegally invading, 'boots on the ground,' Syria. So desperate are Western forces to Balkanise Syria they OPENLY flout so many international laws it's a tragic joke, and all this notwithstanding a peace deal in process between Russia, Syria and the West, at the time of the attacks -- give a thinking person a break, you CFR lackey WESTERN journalists, hang your stinking lackey heads in shame, any first year journalism student could have reported the matter objectively NOT accusatively.

The dilemma faced by the West is of course how to justify a grossly provocative and dangerous illegal attack on Syria, well, roll out the usual, Colin Powell chemical weapons/anthrax (proven) LIE, ruse. The morons will believe the same old exposed tactics, well yes, they will in America, but Western elites are dealing with a very aware GLOBAL population and very few of them play banjos.

My final word on the matter to the elites and their deep state puppet clowns that tried this transparent crap once too often, is, 'who are you trying to kid TODAY?'

UPDATE:

Just released and EXPECTED in the Oz mainstream press.

Now captured by the elite, president Trump has been duly marched out to publicly condemn the Syria "chemical" attacks on civilians, he called the attack "an affront to humanity." Yes, indeed it is but perhaps a little more time should be spent on investigating the attacks, OBTAINING PROOF/EVIDENCE and hauling the culpable before international war crimes courts before making unsubstantiated innuendos.

Furthermore, if Trump is really sincere, he should also drain the Washington swamp (as promised) and hold to account those responsible for the needless killing of 500,000 Iraqi children and a million more innocent civilians after the ILLEGAL invasion of Iraq. Failure to act in this regard would brand Trump a despicable, lackey, hypocrite president (the US norm).

But thanks Donald for making the TRUTH so plain for everyone to SEE, you lead a murdering, LYING, HYPOCRITICAL, violent, CRIMINAL nation -- the WORLD so easily sees today! So please Mr president, inform the WORLD how you're going to make a SHIT HOUSE 'great again.'
