Bag of spineless wind, Donald 'deep state captured' Trump, now reads from the script provided like previous PUPPET presidents before him.

His latest mindless, divorced from reality, outburst is typical. Assad is an "animal," notwithstanding the US has provided no proof whatsoever that Assad is responsible for the latest gas attack on Syrian civilians -- most experts agree it was most likely a false flag attack in order to feebly justify and launch an otherwise illegal military strike.

But as the WORLD now KNOWS after so many EXPOSED lies regarding past military interventions, the US never lets the truth or reality interfere with its propaganda and orchestrated LYING.

Now have a little taste of REALTY, America; Trump called Assad an animal because of civilian casualties and the use of toxic substances, now think people, depleted uranium which the US has used and continues to use since the illegal intervention in Yugoslavia and various nations in the Middle East -- is not depleted uranium the most long-lasting toxic agent used in war today? Of course it is dumbasses, birth defects in thousands of babies born in regions where the USA used this vile weapon, CONTINUE TODAY.

You would learn with a modicum of research that America stands alone as the world's leading civilian killing nation? Was it the leaders of illegally attacked Yugoslavia, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya and any other national leader you care to name in the past 50 years that killed MILLIONS of civilians including infants and young children? NOT BY A LONG SHOT, the dubious prize for the world's leading civilian killing nation goes to the USA by a country mile. Over 5 million innocent civilians dead since Vietnam, including 500,000 infants and children in Iraq due to Bill Clinton's medical embargos; but who's counting and starkly viewing REALITY? Certainly not Washington and its deep state mass murderers.

America is the world's LEADING civilian killing nation THAT is REALITY/FACT supported by a host of academics that have written on the cost of America's ideological and illegal 'regime change' wars -- look it up yourselves if you have the guts, you spineless American dunderheads!

Trump's accusation will be recorded as one of the most HYPOCRITICAL in modern history; the pot calling the kettle black simply won't do in today's world. Dipstick Trump may be unaware of American and world history but I can assure you that the evil bastards that comprise the deep state are, as it is THEY that are responsible for most of the NEEDLESS killing. So if you're looking for the REAL enemy America, LOOK WITHIN, you banjo-playing dreamboats!

Fair dinkum, the fact that I had to spell out historical REALITY to the American population is a tragedy in itself.

NOW, remember Secretary of State Albright's comment when questioned on 60 minutes about the needless deaths of 500,000 Iraqi infants and children, "it was worth it," she said, straight from the horse's DEMONIC mouth! And America accuses others of being ANIMALS, well, 'don't that beat all.'

America is a nation of mindless moronic brutes as the aware WORLD sees it, and don't kid yourselves deep state players, especially if you imagine the global population will follow America down the road to another corporate war for the profit of a few. But don't believe me, please try; the people will rise up in every nation and have your throats THIS TIME and the necks of all your international criminal puppets, are you reading this Canberra polities of both stripes? But please, try it, the world would then be rid of the real 'animals' masquerading as human beings in every nation!
