

Western Mass Media Guilty of SENSATIONALISING Manchester bombing

The tragedy of the bombing doesn't seem enough for the CFR controlled western mass media, they are now in saturation, sensationalist, alarmist mode which tactic is clearly designed to instill terror in populations, this deliberate action is far from a responsible approach.

A news headline in Australia reads, "Bomber wanted 'Maximum Carnage,'" well doh! Does anyone imagine that a brainwashed, ISIS SUICIDE bomber only intended to inflict band-aid wounds? I mean really.

So what is the real purpose of this over-the-top sensationalist reporting? Clearly to instill fear throughout western nations. Now note that the UK military has been deployed on the streets, are they expecting an invasion, as this is clearly a police matter, and the UK police unlike their American counterparts are highly skilled, they took great umbrage over the stupid USA releasing the name of the bomber and interfering with their investigations, but we all know America's cultural behaviour, why think when you can shoot from the hip first. I should also mention that the USA has consistently utilised, via its Saudi ally front man, the services of ISIS in the Middle East and North Africa. So what is the elite captured USA really playing at?

The obvious of course, to contain and further manipulate western SLAVE populations. Deploying the military in the UK is unnecessary, as mentioned above, though bomb experts could be called in at any time. However, the military are now present in full public view in major tourist spots in London. Are we seeing a very revealing pattern of behaviour yet? Media sensationalism/saturation and the military presence combined would indicate that western populations would soon face (planned) social oppression, of course to 'keep us safe,' the usual excuse, when in fact the UK police are entirely capable of dealing with this 'police matter.' And when, not if, the police fail us, which they have in the US and Australia, then clearly our fate becomes our responsibility as creation intended.

Indeed, as Henry 'mass murderer' Kissinger once stated, to paraphrase, 'orchestrate violence/chaos and instill fear and the public would beg you to protect them even if that protection eliminates their freedoms and liberties.' If you want sinister then look for patterns of behaviour, as they always tell a story.

Have we seen this PATTERN before? Indeed we have post 9/11 and the anthrax attacks, another orchestrated false flag which resulted in Americans losing almost all their hard won liberties which laid the foundation for a police state, which America is today. Now watch events closely and you would soon see the same DISTINCT pattern unfolding in the UK.

So who wins? A known (created) puppet 'terrorist' group used to great advantage by the global elite, not likely -- temporarily (as they are easily dealt with) fear those that control, support and pay them, or do you imagine supply lines cannot be EASILY traced with today's technologies?

So why the urgent need to oppress and contain the masses? Simply because global elites fear more than anything, the masses becoming AWARE of the reprehensible behind the scenes machinations of this group of elite psychopaths, whose ONLY interest is wealth/gain by ANY means and to remain in the dark out of harms way, while they pitch nation against nation and human against human. The elite have, and continue to commit, every sordid and horrible deed/CRIME known to mankind, including the needless murder of over 500,000 CHILDREN in pre-invasion IRAQ but the western mass media hardly burped over that massive crime against (ALL) humanity. I hope this particular contrast allows you to SEE more clearly and assess events for yourselves.

Why fear created puppet terrorist groups that work for their masters, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Israel and the USA. Fear and then eliminate the REAL perpetrators, they are easily dealt with via public AWARENESS, which is increasing exponentially worldwide; and I need not emphasise that awareness and knowledge reveal the most effective actions/SOLUTIONS.

Hopefully, you should now be aware that the mass media is not your friend nor is it ever to be trusted. Use the brain the creator gifted you with and NEVER take mass media reports at face value.
