

A House Divided Cannot Stand

The entire western world should look closely at this age-old adage, as it's TRUE, as we all know -- but do we?

The USA is currently experiencing an internal war between elite ruling factions, which include the elected president and his inept team. It seems that nothing is able quell this divisive conflict, which outcome, regardless of which group 'wins', can only be severely destructive for the nation.

Other western nations are caught in the people vs the unrepresentative elite shadow rule conflict, it seems the masses have had enough of being ignored and enslaved but are not quite sure what to do about it, though installing real representatives at elections, as opposed to minority elite serving politicians, is the obvious answer.

And so if we make a comparison to 'other' nations whose populations are fervently patriotic and behind their governments, it would not surprise to learn that these nations are extremely successful and powerhouses of real progress, of course the leading nation in this regard is China. It's population is zealously patriotic, and as has been proven, its leaders have steered the nation to meteoric successes, which unity, cohesiveness and effective leadership, are the secret to any groups' success.

So it's no surprise the USA is rapidly losing ground in every sphere daily, while 'other' nations watch it and its politically useless, incompetent vassals going backwards at lightning speed.

Now notice that these obvious realities and deductive conclusions are not a matter of soothsaying but simply arrived at by observation, which rather simple attribute seems to evade western populations.

Could it be that BASIC common sense is the key to success, as in 'a house divided must fall'?

The USA and its spineless vassals are so busy lying and deceiving their populations that they have fallen victim to their own treachery, particularly "LIE, divide and conquer!" And as previously inferred there will be no surprises at the END of the day.

Of course SIMPLE solutions scream in every westerner's face but unbridled avarice and power-wars are more blinding and addictive than heroin. And if the known fate of junkies is any indication, then I ask, are you able to see the dick in your stupid occidental faces?

Wake up Occident, and institute REAL REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY -- something we are yet to achieve -- OR WATCH MINORITY, CORRUPT PSYCHOPATHS AND INCOMPETENTS RUIN EVERYTHING YOU WORKED SO HARD TO ACHIEVE! Playing the blame game would lead you further into the pit. Try co-operation and mutual benefit, they work WONDERS, junkies!
