

Orwell's 1984 REALISED in USA

An article by 'steemit' (see link below) sums up the entire absurdity of America today. First, the USA has no legal justification for invading and occupying sovereign nation Syria, fact. America's military presence in Syria is grossly ILLEGAL under every international law and convention that exists, fact.

But the recent downing by occupying US forces of a Syrian bomber attacking ISIS takes the Orwellian reality-inverted cake. As 'steemit' quaintly put it, "US forces illegally operating in Syrian skies shoot down a SYRIAN warplane bombing ISIS and call it 'self-defense'." Only in America.

So the world now sees plainly the criminal arrogance and absurdity of deep state LIES point blank. No rational, legal or reasonable explanation by America could justify their illegal occupation and the attack on a Syrian warplane defending the nation against ISIS and other aggressors. Not even the media comatosed American public could swallow this outrage easily, notwithstanding the international community won't have a bar of it.

So where does that leave US credibility and its ongoing illegal wars of theft? In the gutter, is the short accurate answer -- American deep state propagandists seem to think that the international community is as stupid and ignorant as their local population, well, they may be in for a very rude shock as nations world-wide realise that associating themselves with a clearly rogue terrorist state (USA) would cost them dearly as their populations see reality/FACTS as plain as day.

The only external player operating LEGALLY, under international law, in Syria is Russia. All other parties including al-Nusra, al-Qaeda, ISIS, Israel, Jordan, Turkey and America, currently involved in the fighting are the obvious AGGRESSORS. Which fact puts focus on gutless Putin who boasts superior weaponry and defensive missile systems, which somehow always fail to function when Israel, America, Gulf States etc, launch air strikes on Syria. Enough said on Putin the mouse. In fact some analysts are accusing Putin of servitude to the same global elites that are involved with the aggressors. What other (acceptable) reason could there be for Putin ordering his military not to strike and no amount of threatening 'hot air' from Putin alters REALITY, notwithstanding that Putin has inconceivably stalled on each occasion he could have eliminated the ISIS and proxy threats in Syria, however, plain verifiable fact damns that Russian COWARD, who HAS THE LAW ON HIS SIDE AS IS PERFECTLY JUSTIFIED TO STRIKE against any and all attackers on Syria.

Notice how Putin ceases his military attacks at the most critical time, just before victory and always ALLOWS the USA and Gulf State interests to regroup their paid and supplied mass murdering proxy fighters. Give the WORLD a break you transparent cowardly CORRUPT, jellyfish, PUTIN!

Notwithstanding the above, I do not wish to divert attention away from the fact that the USA is NOW lost to the SANE world and has become an Orwellian absurdist, violent, terrorist State which must be dealt with by the world sooner or later, as the most critical supportive factor is LOST, and that is BELIEF in media/propaganda fantasy by the global masses -- in other words, THE EMPEROR HAS NO CLOTHES, and ONCE mass SUB-SCRIPTION IS LOST IT'S OVER FOR AMERICA and its vassals if they do not realise the folly of their subservient ways.
