

G20 and the Unrepresentative Corrupt Bastards that Determine OUR Future

by ray Friday, Jul 7 2017, 1:31am

international / prose / post

The confluence of the world's leading political puppets at the G20 is always met with massive protests, the essence of which is, who do these corrupt elite-serving puppet politicians think they are determining our future by reinforcing a clearly nihilistic status quo?

Indeed, there is great cause for protest at these meetings, as none of the 'leaders' stands for the rights of the people and the sustainability of OUR earth, particularly Trump, who has done more to accelerate climate catastrophe than any other leader.

Who gave these morons and fascists the right to lord over us, they LIE to gain office then renege on promises to the people and serve the Zionist mega-banker elites, which install and depose world leaders like changing shirts, such is the prevailing reality.

This meeting is clearly unrepresentative, it is held behind closed doors with massive security, elites are aware they are the focus of the people, which they fear down to their boots, as an aware population would string them up for their obvious crimes against humanity and their numerous flagrant breaches of international LAW and convention.

Clearly the puppet clowns attending G20 believe they are above the law which they impose on the people in draconian fashion -- the world is saturated in double-think/talk and so we have brazen breaches of law in plain sight almost daily. However, all are not deceived, especially those that protest for a better, fairer society and healthy sustainable earth which G20 leaders consider secondary issues, the primary issue of course being evermore profits for elite shadow rulers, that dutifully dispatch their political servants to establish and consolidate THEIR minority interests above every other interest group, the largest being the global masses.

Have you ever witnessed a more unbalanced democratic process? In fact the G20 itself is searingly undemocratic as it involves the future of most nations and their populations without consultation with the majority. The G20 is a confluence of fascists pure and simple and all freedom loving people are obliged to disrupt or at the very least swamp and voice their concerns at these meetings, which concerns are in stark contrast to the wishes of shadow ruling elites, all of which are driven by greed and appropriation by any means available, or haven't you noticed the 'perpetual war' doctrine of the USA and its daily breaches of international law following same religiously. Which fact begs the following question, which of the leading 20 nations upholds international law and forces obvious law breaking nations to heel? None, do you find that odd? Clearly America is the world's leading law breaker and civilian killing nation, therefore it is by definition the world's leading terrorist state, FACT! That is the obvious reality anyone is able to confirm by simply researching the stats and the civilian death and displacement count attributed to American illegal interventions.

Now, do Germany, Russia, China and other nations protest these illegalities at G20 and hold the criminal nations to account, not a chance -- why? Simply put they are CLEARLY party to these crimes. Russia for instance had and continues to have numerous opportunities to launch defensive attacks against nations Israel, USA, Jordan, Turkey and other Gulf State interests that illegally attack sovereign Syria; the ONLY external nation that has a legal right to fight with Syrian forces is Russia, every other nation involved is clearly breaking a multitude of international laws and conventions, but SILENCE and INACTION from PUTIN and other leaders that are easily capable of maintaining law and order and holding rogue nations to account, so why no action?

The answer is obvious, as hard as it is to take for some people who live in a dream of 'opposition,' every nation on this planet has been harnessed and economically shackled by Zionist mega-banking interests, which group also owns the Federal Reserve which private enterprise prints the world's unpegged default trading currency, the greenback.

So you see, the game has been sewn up for centuries, G20 leaders are merely dispensable puppets and know very well that if they oppose this ruling elite their lives would not be worth a cent, however, to maintain order, elites allow their puppet politicians to make, via corrupt means, hundreds of millions in currency, which incentive maintains the CORRUPT order.

Anyone with a brain sees clearly that huge crimes are being committed daily in numerous regions of the world yet no response from so-called 'opposing' nations that never fire on these criminal states. So what's your explanation if you are unable to see and assess the obvious capture of every nation by a sinister shadowy group of avaricious mass murderers and economic SLAVE masters? Who do you think enforces INEQUALITY (elites) and by whom is it maintained (politicians), doh?

So this is the REALity, the only force of real opposition is the global masses, the enslaved PEOPLE of the WORLD that are easily able to break their paper (monetary) chains, unite and FIGHT to restore JUSTICE to OUR world.

In the meantime down with UNREPRESENTATIVE ELITE RULE and their pathetic political puppets at the G20 -- send a very clear message, PEOPLE! Together we are easily able to return OUR respective nations to the PEOPLE, the democratic ideal.

<https://www.commondreams.org/news/2017/07/06/beneath-dramatic-g20-clashes-deep-demand-better-world>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-2745.html>