

Wealthcare is a Guaranteed Privilege for Elites

It's time for more home truths, doodle dandies.

As Americans struggle to obtain basic healthcare for the masses, which is currently the most feeble in the developed world, elites have succeeded in their agenda of WEALTHCARE FOR THE PRIVILEGED, that is, the less than 1%. This tax avoiding, selfish to the extreme, group, ensures that governments protect their mostly ill-gotten (via exploitation) gains using tax havens, foreign cheap labour (globalisation) and other 'legal' means -- since they eliminated regulation by installing puppet politicians to office -- the less than 1% have never had it so good. They shoulder almost no tax responsibility to the nation for infrastructures and services, so now you know why everything is going to the dogs, doodles -- the largest incomes return the least in tax, sound fair to you?

Average Americans allow themselves to shoulder, in relative terms, the highest tax burdens because the rich won't pay -- well lump it, because you failed to ensure that taxes were levied proportionally on those that could afford it, so suffer like the pathetic enslaved sheep that you are. By the way, how's your fight for basic health care going -- LOL?

Home of the 'brave' land of the 'free' -- who are you useless, gutless, wimps trying to kid? Only yourselves, OBVIOUSLY!

'Give me a home where the underprivileged roam and bankers and corporatists play, where seldom is heard an equitable word and the skies are polluted all day ...'

You people are the laughing stock of the entire civilised world -- no other western population would tolerate the conditions and average living standards you endure -- and you morons imagine you're superior -- LOL -- my question is, to what? You're about as popular internationally as a bit of shit on a stick -- btw, how's Trump going with North Korea, or your failed catastrophic Middle East wars?

You people are truly PATHETIC -- it's time to take a long, hard look at your tragic selves.

The truth to date is, you deserve everything you get -- eat shit and learn to enjoy it!
