The last of the scorched earth Bannonite ideologues has been forced to resign from his position as deputy assistant to the president, make no mistake. His forced departure leaves Trump castrated and completely under the control of unrepresentative deep state, perpetual war forces -- prospects for the WORLD look grim, as it is widely known that deep state forces pursue war and more war, though their record in this area is clearly catastrophic, but such is the condition of avaricious criminal psychopaths.

Sebastian Gorka, centralist and fascist

The deep state coup is now complete, Trump is completely alone and neutered, as his policy reversals now indicate. It's all over now baby, red, white and blue. Yet the deep state coup appears successful, as the masses have taken this heinous crime passively, as usual, so much for Trump's 'brave' grass roots supporters - LOL!

The possibility of assassinations of those responsible, from Wall Street to the CIA/Pentagon/Neocons, now seem remote but one never knows as assassination is the easiest and most effective political manoeuvre of them all, as history clearly indicates. In fact the deep state uses assassination/murder as its primary tool in foreign policy matters. But of course the effect tends to boomerang. Few deep state players would now openly take risks in public, as there is absolutely no doubt that a criminal coup has taken place in the White House and government, woe, woe, woe, America.

And if the WORLD takes no action to ostracise the now extremist, criminally led USA, then it becomes a GLOBAL problem.

We will see if the 'big brave' US population is able to live up to its myths and restore THEIR government, I think not, the world is aware that Americans tremble in fear whenever a weather balloon appears in the sky.
