

The World Today is Gripped by Dark forces

by lex Saturday, Aug 26 2017, 1:35am

international / prose / post

YET we all know the cure, LIGHT, which eliminates the darkness as darkness and light cannot co-exist.

YES, light, but I am not referring to torches, I am referring to the light within us all gifted by universal creation, which ignorant fools call God. Indeed, that LIGHT is life itself and as the universe is infinite in all respects including power so too, that light to which I refer.

Nations world-wide are in the grip of evil, criminal, mass murdering forces, need I convince you, just take a look at the 'news.' And so any attempt to implore politicians to reason and sanity must surely fail as governments today by nature are dark, corrupt and rotten to the core. This is no secret we all know it instinctively and denying reality is to deny oneself which results in death, metaphorically and literally.

We have lunatics threatening nuclear war and the masses withdraw into their tiny, frightened world of false hopes and fantasies rather than eliminate/remove those criminals that threaten all life and our planet.

We have been socialised to live in darkness as though it is natural, a given, but it is NOT, it is created by nefarious leaders, hidden and in plain view.

The world and our destinies are in OUR hands, and all we need do is open our hearts and minds and let the light of love, harmony and universal creation/perfection shine brighter than a thousand suns. I would add that light guides as no-one finds any direction in darkness -- light is both the means and solution as THAT light is all knowledge itself.

I would now refer you to mystic poet Rumi, who managed to open his mind and heart to that light, he expressed it perfectly thus:

"One of the marvels of the world is the sight of a soul sitting in prison with the key in its hand."

We all know those words express the Truth.

Now what are we going to do about the deplorable state of the world today, remain in a self-imposed prison of fear or release ourselves. And for those that withdraw in fear, there is no other way to cure ALL our social and personal ills.

Peace.