"I will kill you if I must, or help you if I can" -- Leonard Cohen

If ever material proof is required that the global masses are led by corrupt, Washington bought, lackey leaders -- Trump's criminal and outrageous speech at the UN, which was recorded and compromises every world leader that sat back passively and listened to a pathological personality spout genocide and utter destruction on MILLIONS of INNOCENT North Korean people, including undisguised threats to Iran and Venezuela -- furnishes that PROOF.

It would have been inconceivable for lunatic Trump to spout these insanities in the later half of the twentieth century after the experience of Hitler and his fascist Nazis, YET not a murmur of outrage from the international community of world leaders -- SHAME on all you gutless, dishonourable, spineless jellyfish. Cameras panned the audience, much to the discomfort of those present, and faces remained frozen by the corruption money that had bought their compliance and passivity. It is plain that civilisation has been forfeited to the filthy lucre and that mass murdering, criminal elites would very soon have their way.

Consider that not ONE world leader protested and stormed out of the chamber after Trump made his undisguised lunatic threats -- indeed, INTEGRITY, CHARACTER and a civilised MORAL conscience are no longer required for world leaders, only servility and compliance to CRIMINAL Washington -- plain to see.

Well, world leaders may be in for a rude shock as the WORLD WAS WATCHING this disgraceful, historically recorded deplorable event. World leaders, led clearly by rogue, lawless Washington, have regressed into the most vile, destructive and soon to be realised today, violent phases of world history; have we learned nothing from the appalling destruction and genocide of previous fascist regimes? It seems not! And if night follows day we can be assured of a very catastrophic immediate future. If we the global masses follow our clearly corrupt, cowardly leaders we are doomed make no mistake about it, the pattern is identical to pre-WWII holocausts.

When -- NOT IF -- our leaders FAIL us, clearly RESPONSIBILITY then automatically falls to the PEOPLE to restore their nations to SANITY and civilised LAW, not the corrupt politically partial 'law' of the putrid Hague courts.

People world-wide are aware of the needless destruction and ruinous nature of these extreme, lunatic, fascist ideologies and doctrines, which have re-surfaced today as PNAC and the 'perpetual war' doctrine of Washington neocons. Must we die in the mayhem about to occur or should we act to remedy the situation and RESTORE OUR GOVERNMENTS before it is too late? Had the German people been aware of their options the Nazi Party, which only survived on fear, terror, victimisation and PROPAGANDA, would have faded into obscurity but the German people failed to act then and today though they, INCLUDING ALL EUROPEANS know more than most where Trump's direction leads.

At the current stage of the world's devolution, it is now a matter of fight or die like a dog, though fighting these criminal forces would amount to open revolt and targeted assassinations, however, we have no other options today except large peaceful mass movements for peace -- fat chance -- so the task remains with the specialist aware few and highly skilled operators, so make your choice and take your chances, as the current direction, if allowed to continue, offers absolutely no chance of survival in a JUST and FREE world -- we all should KNOW it!
