

“Actions Speak LOUDER Than Words”, Russia

The Russian FM, Sergei Lavrov, has done it again, how absolutely ineffective and meaningless, words do not cut it in Washington, you dumb Russians. Lavrov “warned” the USA not to escalate the Korean crisis, which infant imbecile Trump is aggravating to the extreme with his rants and tantrums.

Russian FM, Sergei Lavrov -- empty words thanks to disgraceful coward Putin

Trump lives in a reality TV world, not political reality, plain to see, and so is BLIND to the CONSEQUENCES of his appalling and EXTREMELY dangerous actions, of which the Republican Party, according to Tennessee Republican Senator Bob Corker, is well aware and extremely concerned.

The last president to cause American conservatives grief was JFK and it's now history how he was dealt with. You would think with this type of historical response the solution to all America's current problems/dilemmas would be obvious, perhaps it is; however, they allow Trump to continue on his destructive, primarily to the USA, course. No president has done more harm to America and subvert it's standing in the world than Trump, historical fact.

Trump is clearly an American problem and he should be dealt with accordingly, have we got it yet? He is detested by the FBI, NSA and to some extent the CIA; his removal one way or the other would be welcomed by the entire world and America could at least have a chance to regain its former stature in the world community. Today Trump's removal/eradication is an imperative for America's ruling elite, notwithstanding that Trump has made a disgraceful public show of serving the shadow government by deferring presidential prerogatives to ruling elite institutions/forces; however, those forces fail to recognise the real cost of puppet Trump as president, or perhaps the urgency for WWII is so great they are willing to take the risk of turning the entire WORLD against the USA, which in fact is a dispensable nation as are all others.

Now consider the consequences of failing to remove Trump and allowing him to trigger WWII, which action would invite a comprehensive response from the WORLD; every nuclear armed nation would, in the interests of self-preservation, eliminate the threat once and for all, and I am not referring to Kim Jong-un. The entire American continent would be reduced to ashes and remain uninhabitable for thousands of years. Enough is enough and don't we ALL know it!

With that reality confronting the world, what does Russia do? Engage in more hot air, which Washington views as comical. Understand you Russian dummies that ACTIONS speak louder than words -- and if your treasonous, duplicitous, thoroughly corrupt leader Putin, obstructs good sense and sound military tactics in any way, as in the stop-start war in Syria, then he must be dealt with in exactly the same fashion as Trump. Imagine a world without Putin and Trump. I, and the vast MAJORITY, feel better already!
