that the world's most powerful nation has been taken hostage by the world's most incompetent, infantile, personality flawed and destructive leader?

The answer is obvious and simple: the world's most powerful nation is populated by the world's weakest, most submissive and spineless people. There is no other explanation for Trump remaining in power given ALL his flaws and sheer incompetence.

Take a good long look at yourselves average Americans, you are the farthest thing from the home of the brave and land of the free, you shameless, gutless, chicken-shits -- that's how the world sees the USA.

Get a hold on your country, lives and your humanity. Trump is severely mentally ill, plain to see. Furthermore he is ruining your nation before your very eyes!
