

Drone War President Obama Laments his Terrorist Actions

by judd Saturday, Dec 15 2012, 11:12pm

international / prose / post

Or is it just another example of supreme American criminal HYPOCRISY?

It is established fact that imprecise (therefore terrorist) Drone warfare increased ten-fold under the leadership of Obama, a most dubious distinction that will haunt him forever in the historical RECORD. Obama has rightfully earned his name as the 'Drone War president.'

Civilian casualties from this highly imprecise method of (remote) warfare are totally unacceptable according to every known convention and international law of warfare. Yet this criminal president and his team overtly break the law every time a drone missile is fired, as it has been established that for every combatant killed by drones at least 20 civilians (mostly women and children) are also killed and wounded -- this is widely known today.

I include the video below of Obama 'lamenting' the recent shooting deaths of school children and in another context his own criminal actions -- whether he is performing or not is irrelevant, he is clearly aware of the consequences of 'HIS' actions.

I would also state quite clearly that there is nothing lacking in EXISTING INTERNATIONAL and national LAWS, WAR CRIMES and crimes against humanity CONVENTIONS -- the problem is those LAWS are NOT ENFORCED for the most culpable and guilty offenders; "you won't see it [drone missile] coming," (laughed Obama) and, "we came, we saw, he died," (bragged Hillary Clinton, admitting guilt for the proxy assassination of Gaddafi) and these recent examples notwithstanding former Secretary of State, Albright, openly stating in a 60 minutes interview that killing (with medical embargos) over 500,000 innocent children prior to the invasion of Iraq, was "worth it!"

My God, how America has fallen, and to such depths of depravity and criminality it is hardly recognisable as the Republic it once was. But such is the result of a COWARDLY, acquiescing POPULATION that is too frightened to defend its own Constitution, social freedoms and liberties, either by force of arms or by (uncorrupted) legal means as it has been Constitutionally and legally commissioned to do!

Such shameful NATIONAL cowardice in FULL VIEW of almost daily OVERT CRIMINALITY, the WORLD rarely witnesses.

I would remind the lost American public that the LAW applies to everyone and that the PEOPLE have legal authorisation, as recorded in their founding documents, to DEFEND their nation against those M-I-N-O-R-I-T-Y forces that have cunningly taken control!

I would also add that the world is not surprised by the recent mindless domestic shootings of innocent children -- remember the EXAMPLE American leaders set -- it was, "worth it!" This type of insane crime is non-existent outside the USA.

The problem is not with existing laws and conventions it is with the astonishing COWARDICE displayed by the PEOPLE -- be the heroic example of change you wish for all:

A child killing criminal administration infects the entire nation

Lackey and fall guy Obama smoking a joint

<http://www.informationclearinghouse.info/article33333.htm>

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-299.html>