Declaring Jerusalem capital of Israel is probably the most provocative action imbecile, puppet Trump has taken to date, the rest has been mostly hot lunatic air. Jerusalem is the home/centre of three religions, two major, Islam and Christianity, and one minor, Judaism, based on numbers. So what does Trump do? Allow the minor player to own outright, a city that really belongs to the world -- are you reading this, useless, lackey, UN clowns? The UN would clearly be responsible for the certain conflicts that arise from this illegal and explosive declaration.

Look at him! A totally VANQUISHED Trump

Trump, a 100% lunatic, goes from one idiotic calamity to another though most have not yet severely affected other nations, but this decision would surely be the exception. Without stating why this man/lunatic Trump has been allowed to remain in office as long as he has, clearly it is time for the SANE WORLD to intervene, as America has proven under Trump, it is incapable of dealing with the simplest problem in foreign policy. In other words, that is OUR queue WORLD, and let's face it, international nations need America today like they need a hole in the head.

America is CLEARLY no longer able to deal with the simplest issues/tasks as its buffoon, pathologically flawed president demonstrates on a DAILY basis. So if a person/nation is of no use to the world, and becomes a dangerous destructive influence, then who needs it and you do not require a degree to understand that certain actions are extremely dangerous, notwithstanding declaring Jerusalem capital of Israel is completely unnecessary.

However, the bright side is that the international community realises that America has lost it, but they are too slow to act. Now is the time, as most nations wish to cooperate and form new alliances in the best interests of all. Though Israel and America only seek to cause trouble (wars) by selfishly pursuing their own interests at whatever cost to themselves and others, plain to see. Need I remind Israel it is in fact a stolen nation and the legal forces that formed it could be reversed at any time and allow for UN/international oversight -- you think that far fetched? Well, just continue provoking, interfering and causing needless trouble with neighbouring nations, Benny. As for America, it is obviously in rapid decline and is becoming less important to the world by the day.
