

Enforcing War Reparations Ends Wars for Profit

A recently published article alerts readers to the reality that the USA, the leading war mongering, civilian killing nation on earth, avoids the responsibility of its grossly illegal and devastatingly destructive war crimes by shifting consequences and costs onto other nations; Germany for one, was forced to absorb most of the millions of displaced refugees from the war-torn Middle East, notwithstanding that the USA and Saudi Arabia were/are DIRECTLY responsible for the refugee crisis the entire world is now facing.

The article refers mainly to Syria, but what about Vietnam Laos, Cambodia, Serbia, Libya, Iraq, Yemen, Afghanistan to name only a few devastated nations? Indeed, while the USA has a FREE hand playing its horrendous criminal military adventures, needless wars, massive destabilisation and destruction would undoubtedly persist -- yet the SIMPLE SOLUTION stares the entire world in the face!

Why on earth do international legal institutions, the UN, and other relevant bodies tolerate such heinous criminality and destruction from the USA and its allies? Well corruption is the obvious answer, which means WE the global moral majority MUST unite to enforce the law and moral imperative and FORCE delinquent nations to PAY for their OBVIOUS recorded crimes?

International laws, statutes and conventions are very clear on these matters especially regarding reparations, which it should be noted compelled other nations to legally pay for the massive destruction they inflicted on the world in two world wars; but not so the delinquent, criminal USA which has devastated more nations today than all other nations put together. The INNOCENT civilian death count alone, now exceeding 9 million souls since the Vietnam war should be enough to awaken everyone to the horrific behaviour of a clearly law flouting, rogue nation, which is currently led by a lunatic.

The prevailing lunacy simply requires the GLOBAL moral majority to assert the legal and moral code that prevents criminal nations/leaders from brazenly pursuing crimes. I mean think about the euphemistic term the USA applies to all the civilians it has murdered in cold blood, "COLLATERAL DAMAGE," give Orwell a break! 'Collateral damage,' my arse, it's MURDER, as plain as could be, what's more, most of the casualties are women and children, we should never forget the infamous words of a US Sec. of State, when questioned on national TV about the 500,000 children that died as a direct consequence of US imposed medical embargoes on Iraq, remember Albright's sickening answer, "we think it was worth it!"

Now it doesn't take much effort to join all the dots that result in an overtly rogue, criminal nation that cares less for human life than it does about a barrel of STOLEN oil, and we wonder how it is possible that Trump now leads the nation, well shallow thinkers, what does 2+2 equal?

I need not emphasise the point as clearly a leopard is known by its spots and a criminal nation is known by its horrendous crimes. However, with international institutions clearly corrupted and/or dysfunctional it becomes the duty of the international COMMUNITY to force these politicised legal institutions to act and that MEANS, REPARATIONS to every nation affected by US military criminal adventurism.

The matter is legally straight forward, however, we know the USA only responds to two forces, brute force and MONEY, so the SOLUTION becomes plain for law abiding nations/citizens, FORCE THE USA TO PAY FOR ITS PAST, CURRENT AND ONGOING CRIMES. We would soon see a dramatic de-escalation and end to all wars, as the USA is behind and directly involved in ALL of them today.
