

Our World Ended Long Before Mayan Cycle Ended

Smartarses world-wide continue to poke fun at the apparent non-millennial event of the Mayan long cycle completion on 21 December. Materialists everywhere are having a grand ol' time pouring scorn on alternative new age wankers and tree huggers, but to be sure, the Mayans never predicted the end of the world -- a sensationalist western new age author attempting to rake in money from book sales is reputed to have started the rumour of the end of the world coinciding with the end of the Mayan calendar -- 'space cadets,' be advised!

Media 'Maggot,' Rupert Murdoch

In fact, our world ended on September 11, 2001 -- the false flag event that facilitated perpetual corporate war, legalised torture, renditions/kidnapping, illegal surveillance on citizens, indefinite detention, presidential 'kill lists' and totalitarian government -- for Christ's sake! Did you miss those 'minor' world strangling events, morons?

Or perhaps you have become so accustomed to strangers groping your genitals at airports you now think it's normal!

What I am very unsubtly referring to is the death or END of DEMOCRACY, which was the foundation stone of OUR WORLD!

Do not be too cocky regarding the end of the world next time some government pervert grabs your balls or labia at an airport; our/the world ended when we allowed criminal Bankers and Corporatists to buy western democracies and then embark on civilian killing wars of acquisition and resource theft. I mean, who do those darkies think they are, THEIR valuable land and resources really belong to the USA, every dead civilian killed in American wars for PROFIT knows that! Indeed, but isn't it a shame that living American citizens haven't got a clue?

If the masses surrender their democratic prerogatives, liberties, freedoms and self-determination then as Plato said the people are destined to be ruled by evil men.

There are so many events that contributed to the death of global democracy that it is difficult to decide which to include in a short paper such as this -- but thankfully something hit the wire recently, which runs close to topping them all!.. Rupert Murdoch (God to you) has been exposed for attempting to install David Petraeus as the US President, which Murdoch could have easily accomplished had Petraeus agreed.

And as we have all noted, war hero and former head of the CIA (no less) has had his career abruptly terminated by a universally publicised extra-marital affair! It is known that Petraeus emphatically rejected Murdoch's offer to become president -- so much for a once promising career!
