

The Driving Force in Washington

by jill Monday, Apr 23 2018, 2:38am

international / prose / post

George H Bush once referred to the neocons as the “crazies,” indeed an apt description as it was/is the neocons that have involved America in numerous criminal wars since their initial false flag, 9/11, utilised as they themselves published, “a new Pearl Harbour” to justify their invasive perpetual war doctrine to achieve world hegemony and steal resources.

And so the disease which Washington suffers from is well known. Consider arch-neocon Richard Perl’s statement about nuclear weapons, “what’s the point of having nuclear weapons if you don’t use them;” which sick sentiment Trump recently parroted.

One would think in a sane society that these neocon crazies would have been eliminated from all positions of political influence and power, however, sadly, they remain strong in Washington, which fact is highlighted with the appointment of crazy John Bolton to Trump’s administration and the bellicose, insane ravings of Nikki Haley at the UN -- the world tolerates these crazies at its own cost as the PATHOLOGICAL neocon philosophy is clear, PAX AMERICANA, which means America first and no seconds -- unilateralism -- allies for the neocons are a means to an end as their doctrine and philosophy is quite clearly American hegemony OVER ALL.

So-called allies would be in for a shock, comply to our diktats or else, in other words total subjugation, as has passively occurred in once sovereign Australia, now permanently occupied by a US military presence in peacetime -- kowtowing to Washington is an extremely dangerous and counter-productive pursuit for allies, Australia is NOW A PRIMARY NUCLEAR TARGET IN THE EVENT OF WAR; clearly, no one nation should be allowed to rule over all, which doctrine is arrogantly and openly published (PNAC) by the neocons.

Consider also arch-neocon of the Bush era, Carl Rove; his view of neocon philosophy is most revealing, Rove stated for all to hear, read and see:

“We’re an empire now, and when we act, we create our own reality. And while you’re studying that reality—judiciously, as you will—we’ll act again, creating other new realities, which you can study too, and that’s how things will sort out. We’re history’s actors...and you, all of you, will be left to just study what we do”.

So there you have it, plain as day, neocons consider themselves above all laws and fancy themselves demi-gods creating ‘realities’ for others. I would now ask all to review these post 9/11 realities, chaos, ruin, permanent wars and the mass murder of millions of innocents and the displacement of tens of millions more. So we also are AWARE of the ‘realities’ neocons create. Clearly Neoconservatism equates with empathy-devoid criminal sociopathology, hence G. H. Bush’s label, “crazies!”

Anyone that takes the trouble to analyse this group, which today has immense influence in Washington, should be alarmed and extremely concerned over the welfare of America and the WORLD, this group is not only sociopathological but also nihilistic as their pursuits are not new, the most recent historical example is the fascist Third Reich which plunged itself, Germany and the world into chaos resulting in millions of innocent deaths from needless wars, the cause, the world did not act in time to prevent a sick megalomaniac leadership plunge the world into chaos and ruin.

It would be pointless for me to ask why mankind never learns from history and is therefore cursed to repeat it time and again, however, today, the world cannot afford to allow a sick group which espouses the use of nuclear weapons and perpetual war to have any influence on national and world affairs, I would instead refer to a quote of Karl Marx, who was acutely aware that humankind did not learn from history, which folly included himself: "History repeats itself, first as tragedy, second as farce". However, Marx for all his faults, did not live in the atomic era so quite easily we could add to his appraisal of history by adding a third factor, 'tragedy, farce AND nihilism/entropy. And so will go the world, as the disease is humankind's inability to learn from history, which means that if it wasn't the neocons it would be another psychotic group plunging the world into the pit -- the lesson, if there is one, is that humanity is a lost cause, my proof is the continuing presence of the unrestrained, psychopathic, Neoconservatives in Washington.

---

Jungle Drum Prose/Poetry. <http://jungledrum.lingama.net/news/story-3286.html>