

You Want The Truth?

Start with a viable and winnable strategy, place the leaders of the 'coalition of the willing' criminals -- Bush, Blair and Howard -- on trial for their known LIES and subsequent WAR and OTHER CRIMES against HUMANITY committed in Iraq.

Granted, they may not spill their PUPPET guts but they would then take the fall all by themselves and leave the guilty faceless men free -- a good outcome nevertheless, as other puppet politicians would learn that there is a heavy price to pay for serving nefarious elites above the interests of the PEOPLE!

[They should be placed on trial in the USA where the death penalty applies for such crimes.]

You see how really easy it is to thwart corrupt interests and prevent them hijacking democratic governments? Only the will to action is lacking from the people and that I cannot dispense with my keyboard -- but I can sure demonstrate how easy it is to add 2 + 2!
