"I'll show you politics in America. Here it is, right here. "I think the puppet on the right shares my beliefs." "I think the puppet on the left is more to my liking." "Hey, wait a minute, there's one guy holding both puppets!" "Shut up! Go back to bed, America. Your government is in control." -- Bill Hicks

The above is a quote from an American comedian who accurately assessed American politics, YET so-called alternative commentators TODAY continue to speak of the 'left' and 'right' or 'Democrats' and 'Republicans' as though they are self-determined free entities that haven't been bought lock stock and barrel by Wall St Bankers and Transnational Corporatists.

The two major parties are a sham or a show piece, a spectacle delivered to the masses in order to foster the belief that America is a democracy when in fact it is a "PLUTOCRACY" (look it up and educate yourselves!)

Every commentator that persists in deluding the people with the tired discourse/illusion of left or right, Obama or some other idiot puppet reading from a prepared script, is party to the great deception that is being played on the American people.

Today it is as plain as day that both parties are OWNED by the same Wall St interests; take a look at the status quo since the Clinton presidency through to Obama -- regardless of party politics or any appearance of partisanship, the Imperialist, Corporatist, Status Quo, hasn't missed a beat, in fact it is has been accelerated with each successive president including lying FRAUD, Obama.

Political commentary should focus on REALITY not propaganda; drawing attention to the ruling plutocrats and the reprehensible puppets that serve them and what people can do to RESTORE DEMOCRACY to their nation is a necessary task for all commentators, analysts and journalists of INTEGRITY -- are you reading this Michael Moore, Maddow, Hedges and the rest? Cease all commentary on the un-real and focus on the REAL State of play.
