(for Blake and Rumi)

poets attempt, thru inadequate means, to capture or describe the indescribable, nevertheless, it's our efforts that make us poets i try in vain to capture the totality of meaning or infinity in a word and fail but i never stop trying * there, did u see it? did u catch the meaning? did it touch ur soul? could u appreciate the subtlety and deft delivery? No! well, it's the best i could do in the circumstances -infinity is best described by silence the poetry of peace and stillness has already been written without words, medium or stylus of any kind
