

"Obama says U.S. has moral obligation to stop slaughter in Syria but needs evidence"

The above headline is classic double speak -- consider the world's leading civilian killing nation (FACT) making any claim to morality, then add to that grotesque situation a puppet president that boasts an extra-judicial mafia 'kill list,' who supports Torture, and who expeditiously signed into law indefinite detention without trial or charge -- that is the hard reality, dreamboats.

We do not expect to make any impression on the lobotomized American population, it's the free aware world we address; and it is OUTRAGED every time that black lackey servant to Wall St, opens his FILTHY, LYING, MURDERING mouth.

M-O-R-A-L-I-T-Y, how do you spell that, America?
