In a stunning and extraordinary outburst Obama now expects the WORLD to believe that God is responsible for HIS 'kill list,' indefinite detention and HIS child/civilian killing illegal Drone warfare! In a recent interview (see link) Obama probably went as low as it is possible to go by attempting to shift responsibility for HIS personal evils onto God! "First and foremost, my Christian faith gives me a perspective and security that I don't think I would have otherwise: that I am loved. That, at the end of the day, God is in control," Obama said. Well, anyone with a brain and some familiarity with Jesus Christ would simply say, reprehensible, LYING, murdering, bastard!

He calls himself a Christian whereas it is obvious he doesn't believe in the 'prince of peace,' Jesus Christ, the protector of all children and innocence.

Obama's thoroughly disgusting and despicable attempt to dupe the American people into thinking that his personal evils are somehow approved by a compassionate God, is truly sickening!
