All is revealed if focus and attention are directed in the right direction -- hence ruling elites/plutocrats have always utilised the services of owned political puppets to implement their policies -- and of course Obama is the most servile puppet of them all.

In a recent interview (below) Chomsky again directs the publics' attention to fall-guy puppets rather than the perpetrators and INSTIGATORS of the many crimes committed today by Washington/Wall St around the GLOBE!

Corrupt, unrepresentative MINORITY interests that OWN western governments have been publicly exposed on numerous occasions yet academic and respected leftist commentator Noam Chomsky, constantly avoids the issue and refuses to attack the very heart of the global problem today -- Chomsky instead dutifully and (feebly) attempts to direct the public's attention exactly where nefarious elites wish the spotlight to fall, on their EXPENDABLE, puppet politicians -- name any western political leader today and I'll show you a puppet! Yet a respected academic that KNOWS better, persists in the elitist CHARADE.

I have cited numerous disturbing instances where Chomsky avoids, like the proverbial plague, accusing the GUILTY ELITE, that are CLEARLY behind all the wars and crimes against humanity that have occurred in the past and are occurring as I write. To be fair, however, Chomsky does refer to the ICC as a biased and politicised court. Notwithstanding that offending political and moneyed criminals should be placed on trial in uncorrupted people's courts for their heinous crimes against HUMANITY.

We are waiting for you to redeem yourself Mr Chomsky, otherwise the obvious conclusion must be reached.
