Kevin Rudd, the former Oz PM that was stabbed in the back by his treacherous deputy, Juliar Gillard, has emerged from the shadows to destroy all hope of any positive outcome for Labor in the approaching Federal election. Rudd doesn't have to say a word about the past, his constant presence in the media is enough to seal Gillard's and Labor's fate; indeed, Rudd is acutely aware he is hammering the last nail into Labor's coffin.

Kevin Rudd

Rudd's very transparent intentions should make it extremely clear to all political parties never again to allow a person suffering from 'Narcissistic Personality Disorder' (NPD) into any position of influence and authority ever again.

The pathology is characterised by sufferers not being able to take second place or a back seat to anyone; tendencies to extreme vengeance on those that cast them out of the limelight also force NPD sufferers to exact vengeance from those they feel have slighted them regardless of cost to others, including of course, the entire Labor Party in this case. Sufferers are known for their inability to empathise with others when they feel they have been badly done by, so in the witch's brew/poison potion that Rudd is stirring as I write, we are able to say, 'we told you so' and that Labor deserves everything it gets for abandoning its basic principles, political support base (workers) and instead openly embracing CORPORATISTS and their 'bottom line' ideology.

We have witnessed both Rudd and Gillard kowtowing to Corporate controlled America, which cares less for its vassal States than it does about the most insignificant local problem. Well, the traitorous chickens have come home to roost and it's with extreme satisfaction that I witness the last open display of the once people's Party of Oz tear itself asunder. However, that DOES NOT MEAN that Aussies should jump to the other corporate OWNED Party led by Jesuit trained conservative lackey to the Plutocrats, Tony 'slasher' Abbott.

A very real opportunity now presents itself to all Australians and that is to restore representative democracy to Oz by electing REPRESENTATIVE INDEPENDENTS to office at every level of government. Send a very clear message to all bought politicians that think LYING to the people and then serving minority interests is acceptable.

RESTORE AUSTRALIAN DEMOCRACY and return the FINITE wealth of the nation back to its rightful owners, the PEOPLE. Boycott both major parties and shun the game of charades played by the CORPORATE mass media at election time. Vote for yourself, VOTE INDEPENDENT!
